Dem Leaders Concede Farm Plan Defeat

House Presses For Vote

Brannan Plan Loses Support

WASHINGTON — (INS — The House pressed toward a final vote this afternoon on the administration's Brannan farm program amid indications that only a last-minute reversal could save it from defeat.

Administration leaders privately conceded that the House would reject the new farm subsidy program advanced by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

In its place they forecast extension until Jan. 1, 1951 of the existing agricultural price support program, which has been in effect since during the war, and repeal of the GOP-enacted Aiken law. The latter would become effective next Jan. 1, unless annulled.

The administration is backing a bill sponsored by Rep. Pace (D) Ga., and approved by the House agriculture committee. It provided for a two-year trial run of the Brannan program on potatoes, eggs and shorn wool; a new parity support program for other commodities, generally along the lines of the existing program and repeal of the Aiken law.

Bucking the Pace bill was a Republican-southern Democratic coalition which supported a substitute by Rep. Gore (D) Tenn. This substitute continued the existing program for a year, while suspending the Aiken law for the same period of time.

SEE SUBSTITUTE

Indications were that neither the Pace nor Gore bills would be adopted, but that the House would accept a substitute of Rep. Sutton (D) Tenn., which continued the existing law while repealing the Aiken act.

Under the existing program, the government maintains prices of basic farm commodities at a fixed level designed to provide farmers a fair return on their products.

When prices begin to drop below this level, the government either makes loans to farmers to enable them to keep their products off the market until the price stabilizes or forces the price up by purchasing surpluses.

Under the Brannan program, the prices of commodities would be allowed to fall until they reached their market level. This would result in lower prices for consumers. Farmers would be mailed subsidy checks covering the difference between the selling price and the fair level established by the government.

GOP Race Wide Open

WASHINGTON — (INS) — A wide-open contest for the Republican national chairmanship developed today after John A. Danaher of Connecticut turned it down in order to continue his private law practice.

There are possibilities that Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania, whose resignation takes effect Aug. 4, will be asked eventually to remain as active head of the Republican party. Scott resigned so top GOP leaders could agree on a man to "bring harmony and cohesion to the party organization."

Danaher's refusal of the post touched off a half-dozen campaigns for the chairmanship. There are possibilities that these contests will develop so much bitterness within the next two weeks as to prevent any agreement on a man to "bring harmony and cohesion" to the party.

There are two major campaigns within the Republican national committee for the chairmanship.

Friends of Carroll Reece of Tennessee are trying to reelect him to the post taken from him and given to Scott when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York won the presidential nomination last summer.

The second campaign is being waged by friends of Guy George Gabrielson, the New Jersey national committeeman. There are a host of other possibilities.

French Put Huge Liner Out To Sea

LE HAVRE, France—(U.P.)—France made a signal bid for a return to a position of eminence on the high seas today when she launched the refurnished and proudly-bedecked Ile De France on her first post-war trip to New York.

In maritime circles it was the biggest ceremony since England sent the Queen Elizabeth back to passenger service in 1946.

To the people of France it was an historic event. To them it meant a further confirmation that France is resuming her place in the sun.

Missing Bank Theft Guns Found

One Suspect Still At Large

Two pistols, believed used in the North Fairfield bank robbery last month, have been found

Sheriff Glenn A. Rike of Wayne county, said today the weapons were found in the mud on a farm near the scene of the first concentrated search for the bandits. The bank was robbed of $2,731 on June 13.

James Perry, 55, of Rittman, still is being sought on a federal warrant in connection with the holdup. Paul Boyes, 18, also of Rittman, was recently arrested in Miami, Fla., and charged with the robbery. Boyes admitted taking part in the robbery when $680 in cash was found on his person. He also named Perry as his accomplice in the holdup.

The two men eluded a posse of 300 men who combed the swamplands and woods west of Wooster with bloodhounds immediately after the robbery was reported. The North Fairfield bank is a branch of the Willard United Bank.

First alarm on the robbery was given by Miss Norma Conway, 17, who entered the bank during the robbery. Miss Conway said the two robbers tied her up after threatening her with guns. However, she managed to wriggle free from the bonds and give the alarm.

Also trussed up was C. A. Leak, manager of the bank and only employe in the bank at the time the holdup was staged.

Paul Robeson Speaks; Vets Drown Effigy

NEWARK, N. J. — (INS) An effigy of baritone Paul Robeson, floated down the Passaic river today following a veterans demonstration against him as he spoke at the Mosque theatre, Newark, N. J., last night.

Robeson was booed by the veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans outside the hall where he delivered an address before the Civil Rights congress, listed by the government as a subversive organization.

Some 50 pickets outside the Mosque theatre last night chanted "go back to Russia! We don't need you here! Get out of New Jersey!"

Before the effigy of Robeson a native of New Jersey, was committed to the river, Claude Jones, 19-year-old Negro member of the VFW, blew taps over it.

Huber Loses 52-20 Fight

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) said today he has failed in eleventh hour efforts to win an extension of so-called "52-20" benefits to jobless World War II veterans.

The law providing the benefits —$20 a week for up to 52 weeks— is scheduled to expire Monday, shutting off payments to most of those now eligible.

"The war's over, and the band's stopped playing," Huber told a reporter. "So the guy who went to war to the music is out of luck if he's broke and has no job now."

First 16 Check In

Derby Racers On Display

Sixteen youthful Soap Box Derby drivers yesterday checked in with their sleek coasters at the Mansfield Derby registration center at the Naval raining Center on Ashland road.

The 16 were the vanguard of an expected 40-odd drivers who will compete in the eighth annual News-Journal Soap Box Derby Saturday at the new Derby Downs, one-mile west of Mansfield on Route 30-N. Racing Saturday will begin at 1:30 p. m. following a parade of all contestants.

Inspection of cars will continue today and Friday. V. H. Oberlander, head of the inspection team, said that cars would be checked at 2 p. m. each day.

Cars are on display to the public at the Training center from noon until 8 p. m. today and tomorrow.

Additional cars began checking in this morning.

First entrants were:

Class A — Donald Rabal, 13; Roosevelt Johnson, 14; Ted Hissong, 13; Bud Motter, 13; Clyde Hunter jr., 14; Terry McKown,

15,000,000 Gallons-a-Day

Work Begins On Low-Lift Pumper

Another major step in the Clear Fork city water supply project has started with the pouring of concrete for the foundation of the $116,600 low lift pumping station located at Clear Fork dam.

The station, located just a few hundred feet from the dam spillway, will pump the reservoir water to the filtration plant which will be constructed one and a quarter miles away on Lexington road.

The filtration plant is now the only major portion of the Clear Fork project that is not under construction or completed. However, all the material for the filtration unit has been purchased and stockpiled.

The low lift station will have pumping capacity of 15,000,000 gallons a day. It will be equipped with three electrically driven pumps.

The station is termed "low lift" because it does not require the power of the "high lift" pumping station now completed and located at Lexington and Alta roads, the location of the filtration plant.

The high lift station must force water from the filtration plant to the city of Mansfield approximately six miles away.

The Clear Fork project is scheduled to be completed by June 1950.

NEWARK — (INS) — Novice politician William L. White of Newark announced today that he would run for nomination as U. S. senator on the Democratic ticket.

UEW Denied Wage Boost

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — The Westinghouse Electric corporation and the CIO-United Electrical Workers union have broken off negotiations with a company announcement it is "not in a position to grant a fourth round wage increase."

Westinghouse Vice President W. O. Lippmann said the firm does not feel the trend in the cost of living justifies a wage boost.

"Therefore," he said, "we have said 'no' the the UE's request for a $500 a year per employe increase."

The union, in negotiations resumed last Monday after a two-week recess, had also asked for shorter working hours, pensions and insurance benefits.

Lustron Gets Loans

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The Reconstruction Finance corporation announced today it has approved an additional $2,000,000 in loans to the Lustron corporation of Columbus.

$939,575 Collected

Tax Deadline Brings $57,000

Receipts for the second-half real estate tax collection which ended yesterday totaled $939,575.64. Yesterday's collection was $57,437.53 according to Charles C. Payne, county treasurer.

About 500 letters are still to be processed, Payne said, before it can be determined how close the collection comes to the county's $1,154,933 second-half tax bill.

Persons who pay after the deadline are charged a two and one half per cent penalty for being tardy in their payment, Payne said. Although mail returns being received today will not be penalized if the letters are postmarked yesterday.

The treasurer said "It was too early to tell definitely, but the collections seem to be coming along as well as could be expected."

Murphy's Body Lies In State

DETROIT — (UP) — The humble and the mighty filed slowly past the bier of Associate Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy today to pay their last respects to Michigan's "fighting liberal."

The body of the 56-year-old jurist who died Tuesday lay in state in the mourning-draped city hall. Military guards stood at stiff attention.

At 4 p. m. the body was to be returned to Harbor Beach for burial tomorrow.

Unskilled Workers Add $350 To Total Wages

Farmers, Laborers Score Highest 1948 Income Gains

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Laborers and farmers scored the biggest income gains of boomtime 1948, a year that saw income distributed more evenly among the American people than ever before.

A Federal Reserve Board survey showed unskilled laborers did best of all with a $350 gain to a level of $2,100 in the median or middlesize income for workers of that class.

Skilled and semi-skilled workers, grouped together in the board's report, fared next best with a $300 increase to give them a median of $3,300.

That, incidentally, was practically the same as the median figure for American families in general — $3,320 before taxes, or $3,000 after federal tax payments. Half did better, the other half worse.

Of course, while incomes were up, living costs were, too, in 1948.

Farm operators, who get a lot out of their work that can't be priced in cash terms, managed to increase their median cash income $300 to a $1,800 figure.

Clerks and salesmen and women moved up $100 to a $3,000 median income level, but business owners-managers and professional people (doctors, lawyers, etc.) stayed put at 1947's $4,500 and $4,000, respectively.

Out of 43,800,000 American families, only 26 per cent (11,388,000) had incomes under $2,000 in 1948 compared with 31 per cent in 1947 and 35 per cent in 1946.

Between 1947 and 1948, the proportion of families with incomes of $2,000 to $3,000 remained unchanged—20 per cent —but there were increases in the $3,000-$4,000 bracket (20 per cent of 1948 families), the $4,000-$5,000 bracket (12 per cent and $5,000-$7,500 (14 per cent.

In 1948, eight per cent (3,504,000) of the 43,800,000 families had incomes above $7,500, the same as in 1947. That was before taxes. Deduction of the amount of federal income tax they owed for 1948 would knock 876,000 of them out of the above $7,500 bracket.

2 Elude Searchers

BULLETIN

Two escapers from Ohio State Reformatory were captured at Huntington, W. Virginia, today after police fired two shots through their stolen car. They gave their names as Homer Riffert, Ironton, and George D. Smith, 22, Cleveland, and claimed to have escaped last Sunday.

Two Mansfield reformatory fugitives, belived to have stolen clothing and a gun from a farmhouse near Steam Corners and then an auto near Mt. Gilead, were still at large today, eluding a state-wide search network of highway patrolmen and law authorities.

Patrolmen of the Marion state highway partrol post said that the two "are probably holed - up somewhere in the state."

An extensive search for the pair, identified at Jack Hartford, 18, and Gerald Green, 24, both of Franklin county, was started shortly after noon yesterday when two prison uniforms were found in a field near the Robert Wedler home at Steam Corners in Morrow county.

The Wedler home, burglarized a few hours after the escape of the pair Tuesday afternoon, was robbed of men's clothing, a .22 calibre revolver, $18 in cash and a check book on the Lexington bank.

The escapers are believed to be driving a faded gray 1942 Oldsmobile sedan, stolen near the "Pines" restaurant, about 12:30 a. m. yesterday near Mt. Gilead.

Marion post patrolmen said late yesterday the search for the pair had been given up in Morrow county and that Delaware and Franklin county authorities have been alerted for possible capture of the two.

Scouts, Rovers Plan Fete Friday Night

Arrangements were completed today for the Boy Scout-Rover Crew lawn fete at Liberty park Friday night. The fete, being given to raise funds for a cabin for Boy Scout Troop 4 and five Girl Scout Troops in the Newman school district, will begin promptly at 5 p. m. with dinner.

Members of the Frank R. Stahl Rover Crew report Mansfield merchants have given numerous prizes for games at the outing. Dinner will be served by the mothers of the Girl Scout Troops.

All proceeds from the fete will will be put into a bank deposit for the cabin. Girl Scout Troops of the area which will share the cabin are Troops 11, 46, 66, 77 and 18.

Granted Paroles

BUCYRUS — Two Crawford county prisoners at the London State Prison Farm today were granted paroles, effective Aug. 26. The Ohio Pardon and Parole commission granted them to Paul Dotson, held on a burglary charge, and to Clyde Weaver, held on a non-support charge.

Passage Due By Nightfall

Wherry Starts Atom Wrangle

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The North Atlantic Security Pact comes to a final vote in the Senate today with ratification apparently assured.

Chairman Tom Connally, (D.-Tex.) of the Foreign Relations committee, predicted there would be only about 13 votes cast against the anti-aggression treaty. A two-thirds majority of the senators present is necessary for ratification.

The Senate was called into session at 10:15 a. m. EST, three-quarters of an hour earlier than usual, to clear the way for a vote at 4 p. m.

Connally and other Senate leaders also forecast rejection of proposed reservations to the treaty which would disavow any obligation on the part of the United States to furnish arms to Europe.

ITALY VOTES TODAY

Seven nations already have ratified the pact and Italy's chamber of deputies was to vote on it later in the day. The treaty has been ratified by Britain, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Iceland, Luxembourg and Norway. Other signatories are France, Portugal and The Netherlands.

Before the vote on ratification, Republican Floor Leader Kenneth S. Wherry, Neb., and other pact critics said they would press for answers to their questions on whether America's pledge of mutual assistance would involve sharing atomic secrets.

Wherry said he was going to "put the heat on" the atomic question.

As voting time approached, proponents of the treaty got a powerful word of support from Gen. George C. Marshall, former secretary of state and army chief of staff during World War II. The pact, he said, will "immeasurably" strengthen the security of the United States and improve the prospects for lasting peace.

Before voting on the treaty itself, senators faced a vote on a reservation, sponsored by Wherry and Sen. Robert A. Taft, (R.-Ohio) and Arthur V. Watkins (R.-Utah). The reservation would disclaim any moral or legal obligation stemming from the treaty to furnish Europe with U. S. arms.

Watkins also said he would press for a vote on two other reservations. One would disavow any U. S. obligation to help stem an attack or to use force unless Congress specifically authorized such action. The other would declare that the pact does not bind Congress, "expressly, impliedly, or morally" to use force in repelling aggression.

Storms Due To Hit Area

More storms were in sight for the Mansfield area tonight and Friday, according to the weatherman.

Severe electrical storms lashed the state late yesterday, claiming two lives. Two-year-old Sammy Kaye Flanagan was drowned in a water-filled ditch at Fallsburg and William Hather, 36, was killed by electricity when he apparently walked into a high tension wire felled by the storm.

The Mansfield area was treated to an electrical display late yesterday afternoon. The main storm head passed over, however, and heavy rain fell for only a short time.

According to forecasters, excessive humidity in the air is leading them to predict the electrical storms for "the next few days."

Mansfield temperatures varied from a high of 84 yesterday to a low of 74. "Warmer tonight and Friday," says the weatherman.

Order Troops To Dig Coal

SYDNEY, Australia — (UP) — The Australian labor government called out 300,000 troops today to dig coal in the strike-bound mines of New South Wales.

Five-hundred policemen were ordered to prevent the possible re-occupation of the mines by the 23,000 communist-led miners who walked out 25 days ago.

The decision came as the winter's worst blizzard swept New South Wales and northern Victoria. The government announced there was only enough coal still above ground to continue present limited service for three weeks, unless the mines were put into operation immediately.

Yanks Turn on Power to Halt Tribe Surge

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

A STORY about Frankie Frisch, the new Chicago Cub manager, is making the rounds. It all happened when Frankie was piloting Pittsburgh and one of the box-seat patrons was second guessing all of Frisch's strategy . . . After awhile Frisch strolled over to the fan and told him, I'm going to let you manage the team for this inning. Gustines up. What'll I tell him to do?' . . . 'Bunt,' said the fan. . . . Frisch signalled for a bunt. . . . So it went through the inning. . . . After it was over, Frisch queried, "And now may I inquire as to your name and business?" . . . The fan gave him the information . . . "Fine" said Frank. "I'll be down at your office Monday morning and run your business for a few hours."

CASTING VOTES today for Pete Gattanini and Phyllis Vogel as bowlers of the year was Charley Stine, N-J sport staffer.

Stine picked Gattanini because of his 205-pin league average, record 801 series and four victories in four sweepstakes.

Vogel won the sweepstakes in the WIBC tourney in Columbus by 53 pins and was runner-up for the "bowler of the year" honor last year. Babe Ruth smashed 177 homers in his first four seasons as a regular.

Ralph Kiner now has 137 in three and one-half seasons. Which means he would need 40 more in the last half of the '49 sked.

JOE DIMAGGIO is just two homers behind Johnny Mize in lifetime round trippers. DiMag has 309 and Johnny, 311.

Ten men who once managed the Cincy Reds are still living. The list includes John Ganzel, Clark Griffith, Buck Herzog, Heinie Groh, Owen Bush, Bob O'Farrell, Chuck Dressen, Bobby Wallace, Bill McKechnie and Johnny Neun. Ray Flaherty of the Chicago Hornets is the only new coach in the All-America conference this year.

DiMag Raps 2 Long Hits In 7-3 Win

CLEVELAND—(INS)—The New York Yankees may not be what they used to be, but neither is Bob Feller — nor are the Cleveland Indians.

All three showed that last night as the Tribesmen went down before the DiMaggio-rejuvenated Yanks 7-3 at Cleveland stadium before 75,340 fans, largest night gathering of the season.

Although still rather banged up and smelling freely of liniment, the New Yorkers led by Joltin' Joe ground Feller and his mates into the stadium dirt with little, if any, apparent trouble.

The ex-fireball king lasted less than three innings against the "Big City Boys," granting six hits and five runs. Sam Zoldak, Steve Gromek, Gene Bearden and Al Benton did well enough in relief roles, but the horse was already stolen.

Yogi Berra, squat New York catcher, started Feller's troubles in the second when he rifled a homer into the stadium's upper left field tier. It was his 12th round-tripper of the season.

Cleveland knotted the count in the bottom half of the second before the roof caved in. The Indians' tally came on successive singles by Manager Lou Boudreau, Bob Kennedy and Jim Hegan.

In New York's half of the third, Ed Lopat, the Yanks' starting and winning hurler, belted a single to left to start the New York rampage. Hank Bauer bounced another single through the box before Phil Rizzuto flied to Kennedy for the inning's second out.

JOE TRIPLES

Then Tommy Henrich, the Massillon flash, singled home Lopat, and DiMaggio blasted a triple into the right-field corner, scoring Bauer and Henrich. Berra singled home the clipper for New York's final run of the inning.

Zoldack then came in to quell the uprising.

DiMaggio increased New York's lead to 6-1 in the fifth on his seventh home run of the season and the Yanks added one more for good measure in the seventh.

Cleveland's belated splurge came in the seventh and eighth innings.

Hegan scored one tally in the seventh. He singled, took second on an error and third on a wild pitch, and trotted across the plate on Allie Clark's liner to left.

In the eighth Mickey Vernon and Larry Doby led off with singles and Joe Gordon walked to fill the bases. Manager Lou Boudreau also walked, forcing in Vernon, but Doby was out attempting to steal home. That was Cleveland's last chance.

The two clubs were to square off today at the stadium in the rubber game of their three clash series.

Early Wynn of the Indians was scheduled to face New York's Vic Raschi.

Inverness Four-Ball Golf Tournament Opens Today

By FRITZ HOWELL

TOLEDO — (AP) — Frankie Stranahan, Toledo's top-flight amateur—first simon pure ever to fire in the Inverness four ball matches—is shooting just for fun in the $15,000 event which starts today.

The youthful star is substituting for Ben Hogan as partner of Jimmy Demaret, and any portion of the prize melon won by the Demaret-Stranahan duo will be split by Demaret and Hogan, winners of the birdie barrage in 1941-46-47-48.

Just how much help Stranahan will be to Demaret is problematical. The youngster who stays in trim through a series of weight-lifting exercises, injured his back yesterday when he tried to "heft" too much poundage.

Today's pairings for the opening matches of the seven-round four-day tourney were:

Freddie Haas-Dave Douglas vs. Cary Middlecoff-Jim Ferrier, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison-Jim Turnesa vs. Sam Snead-Dick Metz, Bob Hamilton-Chick Harbert vs. Lloyd Mangrum-Johnny Palmer, and Clayton Heafner-Skip Alexander vs. Demaret-Stranahan.

Snead got in through a substitute role, too, a move which started a large argument.

Bobby Locke, South African who recently won the British open, had been signed to appear as the partner of Metz. However, Locke decided to stay on the other side after winning the British classic, delaying his return to America by a month or more.

S. J. McGiveran, Inverness tourney chairman, said he had not yet heard personally from Locke that he would not be on hand but had "read it in the papers and had heard from a British golf official."

All the programs had been printed bearing Locke's name and McGiveran lodged a stinging protest with the PGA over Locke's default. The letter was immediately sent to the PGA executive committee for action, by PGA Tournament Manager George Schneiter.

Schneiter said Locke also had committed himself to be here for the Western open and for three exhibitions with 'Dutch' Harrison.

Ike Williams Risks World Fight Crown

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— Champion Ike Williams gives Mexico's Enrique Bolanos his third crack at the world lightweight crown tonight in a bout billed for 15 rounds at Wrigley field.

Winner of the first two matches, the negro clouter from Trenton, N. J. is generally favored to turn back the third challenege.

But Bolanos' legion of admirers, here and in his native Mexico, are equally confident their toreador of the prize ring will pull an upset and become the first fighter of his native land to hold an undisputed title.

Matchmaker Charley MacDonald, a veteran in fight matters, predicted a turnout of 18,000 to 20,000 fans and gate receipts of $100,000 up.

The fight is being staged for the benefit of a youth foundation founded by comedian Lou Costello.

Referee for the bout, services gratis, will be Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight king.

Phi Sigma Chi Beaten, 15-10

Phi Sigma Chi dropped its first game in the second half Recreation league softball race yesterday by a 15-10 margin to Western and Southern Insurance.

Western and Southern drilled out 27 hits while Phi Sigma Chi lost while collecting 19 bingles. Smith and Cotter led Western and Southern with four safeties apiece.

Heavy Champion Opens Training

NEW YORK — (AP) — Ezzard Charles, the NBA heavyweight champion, begins training today for his 15-round bout with Gus Lesnevich in Yankee stadium, Aug. 10.

Charles will work out in Joe Louis' old drill quarters at Pompton Lakes, N. J. He will start boxing Monday with sparmates Gene Lones, Lloyd Gibson, Doc Williams and Hubert Wood.

Lesnevich, who started training Monday, will resume boxing today at Summit, N. J.

Bobby Regula Hurls Fine One-Hit Effort

Bob Regula pitched his first really good game of the season here last night as he led Gorman-Rupp to a 5-0 victory over Mt. Vernon Stone's Grill.

Bob gave up only one hit and one walk while striking out 11 Mt. Vernon batters. It was his fourth victory of the year but the first time he has approached his form of last season. The lone hit came in the third inning.

Gorman Rupp collected nine hits including a triple by Pete Campbell and doubles by Al Baki and Kenny Windsor. Windsor Manager Nick Weber and Curtis each had two hits apiece.

The Pumpers will be host to Findlay tonight a team which beat them 2-1 in an early-season game at Findlay. Stretch Regula will do the pitching. Game time is 8:30 p. m.

ND Grid Game Against Army Not In Books

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (INS) — Prospects are remote that Notre Dame and Army will resume football relations so long as Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore is superintendent of the military academy.

The man who must put the stamp of final approval on all West Point athletic schedules says Irish grid teams are just "too good consistently for Army." Gen. Moore explained.

"Notre Dame is out of our league. It would take us half a season to prepare for that great squad, and the other half to recover from the meeting."

Army - Notre Dame relations were severed during the regime of Gen. Moore's predecessor, Brig. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor. Gen. Moore assumed the West Point superintendency last January.

There also is slight chance that the Army-Navy fall classic will be moved about the country in future years as the military academy commandant sees things.

Gen. Moore explained he would favor changing the site from year to year except for "financial involvements." He pointed out that revenues from the grid game support most of the overall athletic programs at both West Point and Annapolis. He said:

"We must not eat up the profits with expenses for transporting the cadets and midshipmen."

BULLETIN

Gorman-Rupp softball Manager Nick Weber was attempting at noon today to book a game for tonight with a fast local team. The Pumpers scheduled game with Findlay was called off late this morning because seven Findlay players are in the hospital with ptomaine poisoning.

Lausche Fires 69 Golf Tally

Ohio Governor Frank J. Lausche took time off for a little golf game yesterday and almost took the Scioto Country club course apart.

Lausche fired a three-under-par 34-35—69 over the tricky Scioto layout, one of the toughest in the state. Scioto will be the scene of the PGA tournament next year.

A 100-man field was to fire in the Columbus District Seniors tournament starting today at the club but Lausche said he wasn't entered because of "business reasons."

Two Top Tilts Set Tonight

Two top flight games are on tonight's softball schedule.

Ideal Electric guns for a share of the first round National league lead while the two top night Church league teams — Park avenue Baptist and First Congregational — meet at Johns park. An Ideal victory will put it in a four-way tie for the National lead. The game will be played at North Lake park.

Park Avenue has won six and lost one while the Congregational nine boasts five wins and one loss. Other Church games are United Brethren vs. First Methodist, Prospect park and First Presbyterian vs. Four Square Gospel.

All games will begin at 6:15 p. m.

Ollie Cline Signs With Buffalo Bills

BUFFALO, N. Y. — (AP) — Three fullbacks and three guards returned signed 1949 contracts to the all-America football conference Buffalo Bills yesterday.

Included was Ollie Cline, a back acquired from the champion Cleveland Browns, who will be playing with the Bills for the first time. Cline is a former Ohio State university star.

Tribe Pole Sitter Bit Disappointed

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Indian-sitter Charley Lupica is a year older today, and also a bit disappointed.

The determined Charley, who has vowed he won't come down from his 40 foot perch until the Cleveland Indians regain first place in the American league, celebrated his 37th birthday yesterday.

But his one birthday wish — for a Cleveland victory over New York, went ungranted. The league-leading Yankees drubbed Charley's Indians 7-3 last night.

Ashland Race Show Slated This Sunday

ASHLAND — The Tri - State Racing association Sunday will stage the second of three "big-car" shows planned for the Ashland county fairgrounds this year.

There's a possibility that either hot rods or midgets may be imported to fill Tri - State's final date here late in September or early in October.

All of the favorites who've been racing at Ashland for the past three years are sure to be back again Sunday. Red Bayles of Columbus, Mike Wallner of Akron, Bob Paul of Berea, Buck Barr of Zanesville and a flock of others are planning to come here.

And Carl Scarborough also may be back. Carl narrowly escaped death in a crash here earlier this year and has been sidelined since then. But Tri - State promoters hope to talk him into ending his retirement in time to again compete at Ashland.

Seven events will make up Sunday's card, starting with time trials at 12 noon. The main show will begin at 2:30, starting with three eight - lap eliminations, followed by a four - lap helmet dash, a consolation event for non - money winners and then the grand finale at 20 laps or ten miles.

George Lynn Gets New Grid Post At Oklahoma School

NORMAN, Okla. —(AP)— George Lynn, freshman football coach at Kent univeristy, today was named assistant coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma officials made the announcement here after talking by telephone with head coach Bud Wilkinson, who is in Chicago coaching the college all-stars for their game with the professional Philadelphia Eagles.

The 28-year-old Lynn will replace Walter Haresheimer, who resigned recently to accept a similar spot at the University of Southern California. His salary here was not announced but Haresheimer's was thought to be about $6,500.

Lynn has been at the Ohio university the past two years. He will come here after the summer term has ended.

He was quarterback and captain of the 1942 Ohio State team, which won the big ten conference title. He was with the New York football Giants briefly in 1943 and then entered the Navy for three years.

Signs With Hornets

CHICAGO — (UP) — James "Bob" Smith, 24, former Iowa university football star, has signed with the Chicago Hornets, coach Ray Flaherty announced today.

Set Grid Meeting

MILLERSBURG — An organizational meeting of boys interested in playing football at Millersburg high school will be held Monday, Aug. 1 at the school. All candidates have been requested to attend the meeting.

Guard That Social Security Number—You Might Want It

By JOHN FISHER

What is your lucky number? Mine is 294 - 07 - 8217 – yep, you guessed it–it's my social security number.

If you are employed in industry or commerce, you too have a lucky social security number. If you treat the number properly it will pay you dividends.

When you first begin to work at a job covered by social security, you should obtain your social security number at the Social Security Administration office, room 405, Richland Trust building.

Don't cheat on your age–you may find yourself at 65 ineligible for benefits because your social security records show that you are only 60.

You are given a card with a stub– the stub is to be torn off and placed in a safe spot at home. Then if your card is lost in the family wash you will know your number and be able to get a new card in only a few minutes. If you lose both your card and stub, a duplicate can also be obtained, but it will take longer, since the records would have to be checked to make sure that you receive the same number.

One number lasts a lifetime and is good in any state. Edward P. Bionston, manager of the local office, has intercepted workers applying for their third number. If you should die and your survivors know your social security number they can start collecting benefits right away.

If you change your name by marriage or by whim, have your social security card changed. You will keep the same number, but the name will be changed accordingly. The main office in Baltimore, Md., reported one much married woman had seven different numbers, before she learned that she should have kept the same number even though her name changed seven times.

Workers who held a job covered by social security can apply for monthly benefits at the age of 65, if they are retired. They may earn unlimited pay at certain jobs such as farming, government jobs and other jobs not covered by the social security program, while they are drawing benefits. No worker who makes more than $15 a month on a job covered by social security can also collect benefits even though they are 65 years old.

Retired workers also receive benefits for children under 18 and the wives of workers receive benefits when they are 65, even if they have not worked.

If a worker covered by social security dies, (at any age), his widow, his minor children or his parents, if he has been supporting them, may be entitled to benefits.

At the Mansfield office six civil service employes see that some 4,000 persons in the five-county area of Richland, Knox, Morrow, Crawford, and Ashland counties, receive $70,000 in benefits a month. Payments during 1949 are expected to exceed $800,000.

Blonston is in the midst of figuring how much money in benefits has been lost because holders of the "lucky" social security numbers didn't know the rules. Blonston is certain that the loss will run into thousands of dollars.

Trailer Burns

The trailer home of Violet Fenton, Forest Gardens Trailer camp off Olivesburg road, was destroyed early today when fire broke out from a coal oil stove. No one was injured.

Firemen from No. 4 station answered the alarm at 2:10 a. m. It was the first run made from the new station on Newman street.

Optimists, All Right

Thirty members of the Optimist club were in Cleveland for the Indian-Yankee baseball game last night. The Optimists, hoping to see Cleveland win, were really optimists—the Yankees won 7-3. The group left at 3 p. m. yesterday and stopped for dinner before the game.

REPORTS THEFT

Wilbur H. White, 42 West Augustine avenue, reported to police yesterday the theft of fishing rod and reel from his auto. White, who valued the equipment at $45, said he believed the theft occurred when the car was in an East Marshall avenue garage for painting.

April 1, 1959	144	1,000.00
October 1, 1959	145	1,000.00
Total		$144,850.00

Bond number one (1) shall be in the denomination of Eight Hundred Fifty Dollars ($850.00), and one hundred forty-four (144) bonds shall be in the denomination of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum payable semi-annually on the first days of April and October of each year, for which proper interest coupons bearing a facsimile of the signature of the Auditor shall be attached to and made a part of said bonds, providing, however, that if said bonds are sold bearing a different interest rate than herein specified such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided for in the resolution of Council approving the award therefore. The first interest date shall be April 1, 1950, principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of said City.

It is hereby stated and recited that the final tax settlement between the County Treasurer and the City of Mansfield next following inclusion of tax for the issuing of bonds herein provided for in the annual budget as provided by law, will take place in August, 1950.

Section 3. For the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing bonds promptly when and as the same falls due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said serial bonds at maturity, there shall be and hereby is levied on all taxable property in the City of Mansfield in addition to all other taxes a direct tax annually during the period said bonds are to run, in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the interest upon said bonds as and when the same fall due, and also to provide a fund to discharge the principal of said serial bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section II, Article XII of the Constitution. Provided, however, that in each year that the assessments anticipated by said bonds are payable and are applicable to the payment of said interest and principal and are applied for such purpose, the amount of such tax shall be reduced by the amount of the assessments so appropriated.

Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed certified levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers in the same manner, and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and levied. Said taxes shall be placed before and in preference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. Funds derived from said tax levy hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which together with the interest collected on the same shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of principal and interest of said bonds when and as the same falls due.

Section 4. That the City Auditor is hereby authorized and directed to certify a copy of this Ordinance to the County Auditor of Richland County, Ohio, according to law.

Section 5. That all installments of said assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of said bonds and interest as the same shall become due and to no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 6. That the Committee of Finance of this Council and the City Auditor are hereby directed to have said bonds and coupons properly prepared and executed, to offer same at par plus accrued interest to the Trustees of the Sinking Fund in their official capacity, or to the City Treasurer, who then has charge of the Bond Retirement Fund, in a manner provided by law; and if said Trustees or officer refuse to take any or all of said bonds, then said bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in a manner provided by law. The proceeds from same shall be deposited in the City Treasury to the credit of the following funds and in the amount herein stated:

A. North Adams Street Resurfacing, $550.00.
B. South Adams Street Resurfacing, $1150.00.
C. Abbeyfeale Road Paving, $6,000.00.
D. Bowland Road Paving, $9100.00.
E. Barnard Avenue Grading, etc., $2050.00.
F. Clifton Avenue Paving, $7000.00.
G. South Diamond Street Resurfacing, $1900.00.
H. Fairlawn Avenue Paving, $21,800.00.
I. Overlook Road Paving, $21,850.00.
J. Orange Street Resurfacing, $800.00.
K. Poplar Street Paving, $13,800.00.
L. Wood Street Paving, $24,950.00.
M. East Second Street Resurfacing, $3000.00.
N. Grover Street Paving, $7400.00.
O. Saxton Road Paving, $8900.00.
P. Midland Drive Sanitary Sewer, $3200.00.
Q. Fifth Avenue Sanitary Sewer, $4200.00.
R. Muth - Millsboro Road Sanitary Sewer, $6800.00.
Total $144,850.00.

for the purpose of paying the portion of the cost of said improvement not heretofore provided to be paid by said City and for which purpose said money is hereby appropriated.

Section 7. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after the earliest time allowed by law.

Signed: PAUL W. BUSH,
President of Council
Approved: ROY W. VAUGHN,
Mayor
Attest: CHARLES J. STECKER,
Clerk of Council
Signed: C. J. KALBFLEISCH,
City Solicitor

3—In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father, Roy E. Au, who left so suddenly one year ago today, July 21, 1948. The month of June again is here. To us the saddest of the year a bitter brief. A shock severe to part with one we loved so dear. Wife, sons, daughters, father, mother, brothers, and sisters.

NIEBEL

J. ELMER, NOLANA, PHYLLIS, in memory of our dear Father, Mother and Sister, who were taken from us so suddenly one year ago today. In our homes they are formerly remembered sweet memories clink to their name, those who love them in life sweetly still love in death just the same.

Loving son, Loval Russell and Family.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3 The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

NEXT STOP OCEANSIDE! — I HOPE YOUR MOM HURRIES BACK. SHE'S BEEN A LONG TIME AN' I GOTTA GIT OFF AT TH' NEXT STOP. — GOO.

SAY... DIDJA SEE TH' LADY WHICH WAS SETTIN' HERE ? — YES. YOUR WIFE ASKED ME TO GIVE YOU THIS NOTE WHEN SHE GOT OFF.

W-WHAT ? M-MY WIFE... H-HOKY SMOKES... W-WHAT TH' ? — DA DA.

I KNOW THERE'S A FISH HERE! — BAIT

WHY DOESN'T HE BITE ? — BAIT

EMPTY! — BAIT — 7-21

HEY! IT'S SELIM! LOOKS LIKE HIS WOO-TECHNIQUE DIDN'T REGISTER. — WHOEVER THREW THAT VASE CLIPPED HIM. HE'S OUT!

JUST GROGGY. WED BETTER... — GROESSE WUNDER

STAND CLEAR, MESSIEURS. THIS TIME I FIX HIM GOOD.

BOY, AM I IN A SPOT! MUGS McGULP SAYS I'VE GOT TO REHIRE SON JASPER!

IF I DO, SKEEX WILL GO UP IN THE AIR AN' MAYBE BLOW UP THE FIRM.

IF I DON'T, MUGS WILL WITHDRAW ALL THE GRAVY WORK HE'S BEEN HANDIN' US AN' NURSE A GRUDGE BESIDES.

'AN' HE IS NOBODY TO MAKE AN ENEMY OF. I'LL HAVE TO PLAY BALL WITH HIM SOME WAY. — Tuthill

VERY WELL, I SHALL NOT PITY YOU... BUT YOU CANNOT CURB MY ADMIRATION OF YOUR BEAUTY! BLIND THOUGH YOU ARE, I COULD MAKE YOU ONE OF THE GREAT ACTRESSES OF OUR TIME! — SO! YOU ARE MR. HAMPTON GAUNT! I'M AFRAID I MUST ASK YOU TO LEAVE!

BUT WHY, MY DEAR? — BECAUSE I KNOW MISS MADELON DOES NOT WISH TO SEE YOU! SHE FEARS AND DESPISES YOU!

GOOD-BYE THEN, MRS. SMITH... BUT FIRST I CRAVE ONE BOON... A KISS! — STOP! DON'T COME NEAR ME!

I WANT TO HAVE A TALK WITH YOU, YOUNG LADY. — WHO ME, FATHER?

YOUR MOTHER TELLS ME YOU'VE BEEN BEHAVING BADLY LATELY.

I'M GOING TO READ YOU HER LIST OF YOUR OFFENSES.

FATHER, DO YOU MIND IF I SIT DOWN?

LISTEN, NAYLOR. A PSYCHIATRIST NAMED BLIGGS CAN GIVE YOU THE COURAGE TO GO LION HUNTING WITH TILLIE — THANKS, OLD MAN

I'LL BET POOR NAYLOR'LL HAVE BAD DREAMS ABOUT LIONS — YOU'RE MEAN, TILLIE

COME ON! DR. BLIGGS HAS GOT ME SO I'M NOT AFRAID OF YOU! RROAR — Russ Westover

GRRR — ROAR! — MR. NAYLOR, SAVE ME!

PWHEN DO WE ATTACK, PGENERAL MICKEE? — ATTACK?! ARE YOU CRAZY? AN ARMY OF FOURTEEN AGAINST THE AINT ARMY OF 40,000?!

A DISPATCH FROM OUR ARMY BELOW, PGENERAL! — READ IT!

"DEAR PGENERAL: HAVE GONE TO PLUNCH! SEE YOU LATER! (Signed) THE ARMY" — SOME ARMY! — Walt Disney

MRS. GUMP--THAT CANDY ISN'T BABBLING NONSENSE WHEN SHE SAYS THIS MESS IS ALL HER FAULT.... — ANOTHER ONE OF YOUR HUNCHES, TILDA?

DO YOU REALIZE IT WAS SHE WHO TOLD MR. GUMP THAT THAT DRATTED MACHINE MADE ATOMIC POWER? — HM--THAT'S RIGHT! HER MISSING HUSBAND INSISTED THAT HIS MACHINE MADE NOTHING--

POOR CANDY--HOW HER CONSCIENCE MUST BE TWINGING HER! I GUESS I'M AN OLD SOFTIE, BUT I CAN'T THINK OF HER WITHOUT A CHOKING SENSATION.... — SAME HERE, MRS. GUMP. EVERY TIME I THINK OF HER, I WANT TO CHOKE HER MYSELF!

GUESS SUPERMAN'S OUT WITH A CLIENT. BET HE'LL BE RELIEVED WHEN HE RETURNS AND I TELL HIM I WON'T BE NEEDING HIM ANYMORE. — SAY--! — 301-10

WHERE'S SUPERMAN? I WANT HIM TO ESCORT ME TO THE 20-20 CLUB TONIGHT.' — SUPERMAN WAS ONLY SUBSTITUTING FOR ME, MISS. HE'S THROUGH NOW. BUT I'LL GLADLY TAKE THE JOB.' — POLICE ESCORT BUREAU

MEANWHILE AT THE 20-20 CLUB... I WOULDN'T PUT IT PAST HER TO SHOW UP TONIGHT WITH SOME GUY--JUST TO NEEDLE ME. IF SHE DOES— — YEAH, CROSS-GRAIN— WE KNOW WHAT TO DO!

BLONDIE

I'LL BET I GO UP AND DOWN THESE STEPS A HUNDRED TIMES A DAY

DAGWOOD, WHEN YOU COME DOWNSTAIRS, WILL YOU BRING MY SCISSORS? — I AM DOWNSTAIRS

BUT I JUST HEARD YOU WALKING AROUND UPSTAIRS

I'LL BET I GO UP AND DOWN THESE STEPS A HUNDRED AND ONE TIMES A DAY

ORPHAN ANNIE

W-W-WHAT D'YOU MEAN, SHERIFF--"NO MORE CAVE"? — JUST THAT, ANNIE--ALL THAT DYNAMITE KNOCKED LOOSE TH' PROPS IN THERE OR SOMETHING--

YEP--THE WHOLE MOUNTAIN JUST SORT O' SHOOK ITSELF AND SETTLED DOWN--TIGHT! NOT EVEN ROOM FOR AN ANT INSIDE THERE ANY MORE--JUST SOLID ROCK--

B-B-BUT ALL THAT FORTUNE? — OH, IT'S STILL IN THERE--STAY THERE NOW FOR A RIGHT SMART SPELL, I RECKON--'LESS THEY WANT TO TEAR DOWN THE WHOLE MOUNTAIN, A STONE AT A TIME-- — HAROLD GRAY

DICK TRACY

I-I DON'T RECOLLECT PULLING THAT TRIGGER. BUT I SHORE HEERED THE GUN GO OFF. I'M A MURDERER!

THE PAPPY OF LITTLE SPARKLE SENT TO THE ELECTRIC CHAIR! NO!--I CAN'T DISGRACE 'EM THAT-A-WAY. I'LL THROW MYSELF UNDER THIS TRUCK.

WONDER WHAT HE WANTS?

TESS IS SEARCHING THE HOUSE FOR MR. FREELY. WE WANT TO FINISH THIS LAST PICTURE. — OH, THAT B.O. PLENTY! HE'S SOMEWHERE A-TALKIN' TO 'IM. HE'LL TALK MR. FREELY'S ARM OFF. — CHESTER GOULD

LI'L ABNER

??--SEEMS T'BE LOTSA EXCITEMENT BELOW!! POLICE CARS IS FORMIN' A RING AROUND TH' BLOCK!! — WHEEE!!

THEY MUST BE LOOKIN' FO' SOME DISHONEST CRIM'NUL!!--WONDER WHAR HE IS?

("AH HEARS SOMEONE BEHIND ME, BREATHIN'--IN A FURRIN ACCENT!!") — THEY'LL GAT ME!!--BUT, MY LIFE--IT'S NOTHINK!! THIS STOLEN CAPSULE OF 'U-2-UU' WILL HALP MY PIPPLE DESTROY ALL UDDER PIPPLE!!--THIS WOULD BE A GREAT DAY IN MY LIFE--EXCAPT (SOB!!) I GUNS DIE!!

BRICK BRADFORD

CAPTAIN, DID ANYONE EVER SURVIVE THESE STRANGE SHIP DISAPPEARANCES? — ONLY ONE—

"—AN ENGINE-ROOM MAN. FOUND 'IM FLOATING ON A BIT OF THE "MALINDI'S" WRECKAGE. A COMPLETE AMNESIA VICTIM... AND BLIND!"

THIS MYSTERY 'AS GOT TO BE SOLVED, BRADFORD. CREWS ARE REFUSING TO SIGN ON OVER THIS ROUTE OF DOUBT!

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS, CAPTAIN? — TO FOLLOW IN THE WAKE OF THE "MALINDI MOON!!"

JIGGS

IT WOULD HAVE TO RAIN TODAY--JUST BECAUSE DINTY'S GIVIN' A CLAM-BAKE-

GOLLY! HOW I'M HOPIN' THAT RAIN WILL STOP-SO THEY WON'T HAVE TO CALL OFF THE CLAM-BAKE-

ISN'T THIS RAIN AWFUL-MAGGIE? — IT CERTAINLY IS--IT RUINED MY DAY--I HAD PLANNED TO SPEND THE AFTERNOON DOWNTOWN SHOPPING-

GOLLY! HOW I'M HOPIN' THAT RAIN WON'T STOP-

ABBIE AND SLATS

MISS GROGGINS, HORRIBLE HARRY WISHES TO CONVERSE WIT' YOUSE!! — THAT'S SWELL--BECAUSE I'VE GOT A COUPLE OF NASTY THINGS TO SAY TO HIM!!

MISS GROGGINS, I WANT YOUSE SHOULD SHAKE HANDS WIT MY ASSOCIATE, POLITE LOOIE, FROM ST. LOOIE-- — IT GIVES ME EXTREME PLEASURE T'GRAB THE DAINTY LITTLE PAW OF A DAME WITH SUCH A TERRIFIC RIGHT UPPERCUT, MISS GROGGINS!!

LOOK, HORRIBLE HARRY--I WANT TO GO ON THE STAGE AND BECOME A SUCCESSFUL ACTRESS TO PROVE TO A CERTAIN DUMB JERK THAT I DON'T NEED HIM -

BUT HOW LONG DO I HAVE TO GO ON SLUGGING IT OUT WITH YOUR CUSTOMERS BEFORE I'M DISCOVERED!! — YOUSE CAN STOP WORKING RIGHT NOW--MISS GROGGINS, BABY!!

POPEYE

THEN YOU SAY THERE IS NOTHING STRANGE ON THIS ISLAND— NOTHING THAT WOULD SEEM STRANGE TO A STRANGER?? — THAT'S RIGHT!! NOTHING STRANGE TO A STRANGER!!

HM!! I SEE YOU HAVE A BOOK IN YOUR CORNFIELD— YES, A LATIN BOOK!! — IT'S TO FRIGHTEN AWAY THE WILD MEN OF THE HILLS!!

YOU SHOW ONE OF THEM A BOOK, AND HE SCREAMS AND RUNS!! — NOTHING ELSE SCARES 'EM!!

SA-A-Y!! THAT MIGHT BE STRANGE!! — NO!! I BELIEVE IT IS QUITE NORMAL, WHEN YOU CONSIDER THE PURPOSE OF OUR EXPEDITION — TOM SIMS

THE NEBBS

DID YOU EVER KNOW AMBY POTTS' PARENTS, FANNY?

OF COURSE I USED TO VISIT THEM WHEN I WAS A GIRL. AUNT MILLIE WAS LOVELY AND UNCLE ALEX WAS NICE TOO, ALTHOUGH HE WAS SORT OF PECULIAR.

HOW DO YOU MEAN "PECULIAR"? — WELL, ONCE HE PLANTED ELECTRIC LIGHT BULBS BECAUSE HE WANTED TO PUT EDISON OUT OF BUSINESS

AND WHAT HAPPENED? — HE GOT A SHOCK WHEN THEY DIDN'T COME UP!

NANCY

I DIDN'T KNOW YOU HAD AN OUTDOOR GRILL

Remodeling Of Library Progressing

Wall Removal Now Started

With work on the remodeling project at the Mansfield Public Library progressing steadily, staff members are beginning to visualize the enlarged building and increased facilities which will be a result of the changes.

The roof at the top of the rear wall already has been torn down, and workmen now are engaged in removing the rest of the wall.

A temporary wall has been erected inside the rear wall until the extension at the rear is completed.

Yesterday workmen began putting in a steel girder under the ceiling at the rear of the main floor to support the roof while that section is being torn out.

The Jacob Wolfe company, which was awarded the contract for general construction work, filed a building permit Monday for the extension and garage which will be added at the rear of the building. Work on this part of the project is expected to get underway as soon as the rear wall has been removed.

The addition will extend 34 feet back of the temporary wall and 90 feet across the rear of the building. When it is completed the library will be flush with Richman Brothers' adjoining building on the east side. A garage for the bookmobile will be built back of the extension.

The two-floor extension will be built of brick and glass block. Panels of glass block will be set in the rear wall at intervals to light the stack space on what is now the main floor.

The additional room on what is now the main floor will be used entirely for stack room. The ceiling on this floor will be 15 feet high to allow for the installation of two tiers of steel stacks at some future date.

The additional room on the ground floor will house the county department when the remodeling is completed.

When work at the rear of the building is completed, the bank in front will be removed to make a street level entrance. What is now the main entrance to the library will then be a balcony.

The children's room will be moved to the ground floor and the space it now occupies will be used for a popular reading room for adults. The room on the other side of the library will be devoted to reference material with a small periodical reference room at the rear.

Work on the project was begun early this month, and contracts call for completion of the work within six months.

Examination Proves Youth To Be Sane

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Fifteen-year-old Clyde Huston jr., who held 15 Columbus policemen at bay with a 22 caliber rifle Saturday was in the juvenile detention home today.

He has been charged with shooting with intent to wound, and final disposition of the charge probably will come Friday. Two psychiatrists examined the boy yesterday and decided he had a psychopathic personality, but was not insane.

Close Library Branch

The Newman school branch library will close Aug. 5 until the new Newman building is ready for occupancy, Mrs. Russell Cline, Newman librarian, announced today. Mrs. Cline said all books must be returned to the branch library by the closing date.

Ohio Auto Safety Check Nears One-Quarter Million Mark

38,000 Cars Said To Be Defective

Report Covers 10-Day Period

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Almost a quarter of a million Ohio automobiles came under scrutiny in the first 10 days of the state July safety check program — and more than 38,000 were found defective.

This was announced by the Ohio Highway patrol today. The patrol is conducting the safety check in cooperation with the Ohio Chiefs of Police association. Chief Ross H. Cunningham of Steubenville is president of the association.

The patrol said between July 1 and July 10 its members inspected 92,339 cars and found 18,213 defective in some respect During the same period, other Ohio police and sheriffs deputies inspected 132,995 autos and found defects in 20,053 |

Reports covering inspections since are not yet available.

The technique of inspection varies with localities. The patrol seems to favor the "roadblock" technique in which cars are halted briefly for the test.

Some police departments, such as in Columbus, have set up "safety lanes" to which motorists have been flocking voluntarily to have their cars checked and receive the little red "O K" sticker.

In other cities, such as Cleveland, police concentrate on cars in parking lots.

Whatever the technique, the check is essentially the same — headlights, tail lights, stop lights, horns, windshield wipers and brakes.

The patrol assures the driving public the check is not designed to lead lambs to the slaughter No arrests are made.

A written bill of particulars is handed to the motorist whose auto is found defective in some respect.

When the defects are remedied, he may return for another check and get the sticker awarded to approved cars.

Galion Auditor Clarifies Development Sewer Stand

GALION — Discussion on the proposed sanitary sewer to serve new housing developments on the north side of the city at city council meeting Tuesday night led to a clarification of his stand by Gloyd Frye, city auditor, yesterday

Frye was under fire at the meeting for his refusal to issue notes to pay for the improvement

Frye stated yesterday he would not issue notes or approve a contract on the $11,000 project until all property owners affected by the improvement gave assurance that the assessments would be paid Over 80 property owners in the affected area have received notices of assessments and only 10 have signed waivers.

Also effected by the project is the proposed site of the new north school building This site now is owned by Wade Stevens, who reportedly is ready to sign a statement to pay the assessment. However, Frye countered with a doubt as to the legality of such a statement and stated he would issue notes only when he is assured the assessments will be paid or the money is raised otherwise.

During the session Frye and Mayor H. H. Hartmann were accused of "holding up" the improvement and Frye's statement yesterday was an aftermath of the stormy meeting which he did not attend and which was of one a series of discussions arising directly or indirectly from the issue of the site of the new north school.

Frye further stated the school board had not paid old assessments of a number of years ago and he would seek an opinion from City Solicitor George H. Davies on the liability of assessments.

Lifer Wins Freedom

Habeas Corpus Writ Frees Murderer

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Cecil H Yankey won his release from Ohio penitentiary in a habeas corpus action yesterday and immediately instituted proceedings to further free himself from the custody of the Highland county sheriff

Franklin county Criminal Court Judge Cecil J. Randall discharged Yankey from Ohio penitentiary and remanded him to the sheriff's care

Yankey's attorney, Miss Cecile J Shapiro, immediately filed a writ of habeas corpus against the sheriff seeking to gain her client his complete freedom

Yankey had been sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary by Highland county Judge George McDowell for the first degree murder of old age pensioner Leroy Woodland.

Attorney Shapiro filed the habeas corpus action, claiming that the sentence was illegal because only one judge imposed it.

The petition said Ohio law requires three judges to act in a capital offense.

The Highland county trial jury disagreed and was dismissed. Yankey's plea was changed to guilty and he was sentenced immediately by the judge.

Project Designed To Protect Children

Safety Town Gaining Annually In Value

Mansfield's Safety Town is more successful this year than it has ever been before. Traffic Commissioner Frend Boals believes.

Attendance at the school has held at 50 children each day, Boals said, and the children are learning more than in past years.

The toyland village that teaches safety to children who will brave the streets to attend school for the first time next fall, was originated by Boals in 1937, but was discontinued during the war years.

The 120 foot square area equipped with tiny streets, sidewalks, buildings and an electrically-operated traffic light, is set up at Prospect school playground. Buses bring the children to the school each day and return them near their homes after the class is completed.

The aim is to teach one safety lesson each day. The children learn and have fun too, by acting out dangerous traffic situations on the toyland village's streets and sidewalks.

Replacement of pedal operated automobiles with three-wheel chain operated vehicles this year was a great improvement, Boals said.

The toy cars were hard for the children to pedal and they lost interest in the class, he said.

The three-wheel vehicles are much easier to handle, he added. Six of the vehicles were purchased for the school this year by the Police Recreation club.

"Safety town has definitely arrived," Boals said.

"In the past it was more of an experiment, but with its success this year, safety town has became a definite part of our safety program," he said.

The third of the season's five two-week sessions opens Monday for children who will attend Rebecca Grubaugh and West Fifth street schools next fall, Boals said.

Instructers will be Mrs. Violet Oberlander and Miss Lois Schnitzer, who also taught the first two periods of the school this summer.

The classes start at 1:30 p. m. and dismiss at 3:30 p. m. Monday through Friday. The only cost to the parents is bus fare, which amounts to $2 for the two weeks.

Bus stops for the next two-week period follow: At 1 p. m. Fifth and Mulberry streets, Fifth and Bowman streets, Fourth street and Western avenue, Fourth street and Ausdale avenue, West Park drive and Park avenue west, and Park Avenue west and Western avenue.

The buses return the children to these points shortly after the school is dismissed.

THAT MEANS STOP—Learning the meaning of a stop sign even before they attend public school for the first time are Anita Ellen Flook (left) and Jacqueline Rogers, pupils at Safety Town.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills. —Adv.

Bare Tooth Decay Work

NEW YORK — (AP) — New Harvard tooth decay experiments challenge the prevailing belief that sweets, by making mouth acids, are a foremost cause of tooth decay.

The Harvard work indicates that only about one - fifth of decay is due to conditions in the mouth, such as the acids which nourish the germ, lactobacillus acidophilus, that is one cause of decay.

The rest of the causes, as seen in this new work, are internal; that is, what doctors call systemic. These studies were made on hamsters, rats and mice by Reidar F. Sognnaes, Ph. D., of the Harvard School of Dental Medicine. The Nutrition foundation financed them.

It was found almost impossible to cause tooth decay in these animals by excessive eating of sugar, yet under two circumstances sugar caused a lot of tooth decay.

The sugar failed to do tooth harm when fed adult animals, but when fed to mothers of unborn animals, the young had bad teeth. And when fed to the young, before their teeth developed, a high sugar diet again resulted in bad teeth.

Dr. Sognnaes said it still is not clear why the high sugar diet affected the young animals, nor was it even a certainity that the sweet was the cause of these bad teeth.

Galion Girls Go To Luther League Camp

GALION — Rosemary Baxter and Patricia Auer will attend the Junior Luther League Bible Camp at Fulton today, tomorrow and Saturday.

Next week Elaine Hottenroth and Marilyn King and Jean Sauter will attend the Senior Bible Camp for the Peace Lutheran church. The church sent Nancy Tracht and Betty Mulberg to the Youth Leadership Training School at Columbus last week.

"Listen to what every single bottle goes through," says Stephen E. Adam. "Then you'll know why we trust it to bring you the purity, flavor and goodness of Burkhardt's.

"At the discharge end of the bottle soaker where I'm standing is a long ways from where the bottles are put into it. The soaker is so big nearly 6,000 bottles are going through it all the time.

"Every single bottle passes five times through tanks of caustic soda—and that's a powerful cleanser if you ever saw one. Then, each bottle is gripped individually and held over a piercing jet of water. It looks like a tornado had hit the inside of every bottle," Adam said with respect.

"Then a bath of warm, pure, filtered air dries each bottle quickly. We don't want even a drop of clean water inside the bottle when it's ready to receive the carefully guarded flavor of Burkhardt's," Adam went on. "It's as clean as a careful mother tries to make her baby's nursing bottle."

Steve speaks of different processes in the "bottle house" with familiarity. He's been with us six years and has spent most of the time in there—generally on this soaker and on the labeler.

He was born in Akron and is a graduate of South High School. He's done some traveling around the United States . . . spent a year in Utah . . . and is now living and working right back in the neighborhood where he grew up.

In fact, he lives on Grant Street just a few blocks from where he works. He lives there with his wife, an Akron girl, and his son and daughter. Steve's son will start to school next year.

Aside from his home and his children, Steve gets a lot of enjoyment from athletics. On the Burkhardt Baseball Team, he alternated between the catcher's box and second base. He has played with another baseball club, too, and is on a team with other men from the brewery in a local bowling league.

We're proud of the cleanliness of our bottles, naturally, and of the painstaking care that goes into every process in our plant. We're even more proud of the skill and loyalty of our men that make them careful in every operation.

We regard this skill and loyalty as extra factors—in addition to fine ingredients—that give Burkhardt's the fine, distinctive flavor so many people prefer.

Plane Crash Demolishes Homes

ANOTHER of those "non-scheduled" air liners came to grief Tuesday night at Seattle, Wash., when it crashed in a densely-populated area of the city, wrecked and set fire to seven homes, killed at least at half-dozen persons and injured many others.

Just how it comes about that such disastrous "non-scheduled" flights continue to be tolerated is not explained, but the extent to which air travel has created hazards on the ground is a matter which deserves more attention than it has thus far been given.

This menace to home safety is brought forcefully to mind by the frequency of low-flying over the city, with zooming planes sometimes seeming so close as to barely escape housetops. There is also the practice of "buzzing" the homes of relatives or friends, in which some pilots indulge, and which sometimes have fatal results.

As the necessary uses of air travel and transportation continue to grow, it will be necessary to provide greater safeguards against preventable accidents—and it is none too soon to make a start along this line.

Soap Box Derby Comes Saturday

WITH 'DERBY DOWNS' moved this year to a much better location from the spectators' standpoint, even larger crowds than usual are expected to view the eighth running of the Mansfield Soapbox derby on Saturday afternoon. The people watching the races from the embankments along West Fourth street road, a mile west of the city, will be enjoying the competition, of course. But they will enjoy something more.

In every race crowd in previous years the watchers could be heard remarking about the little cars which the boys build themselves. The derby is not just a few hours of excitement. It gives young boys a chance to demonstrate their ingenuity and patience during months of work on their racers. They have shown fine sportsmanship, too.

Parents usually are as much excited as the youngsters themselves. And while the chance to go on to the national competition at Akron is a greatly desired prize, there are other awards the cash value of which total $1,000.

There are approximately 50 entrants this year, and the derby promises to be one of the most interesting ever run.

Recovering Gambling Losses

REPORTED settlement of a case in which a Mansfield woman sued to recover gambling losses of her husband reveals that operators of illegal gambling places will exert themselves, in every possible way, to avoid centering of attention on the fact that they are permitted to operate without police interference.

Probability is that relatively few people know about the provision of law under which gambling losses can be recovered, and there may also be property owners who do not know about a law that bans renting or leasing property for commercialized gambling purposes—a bookie joint, for instance.

Boys Village Attracting Notice

IN OUR OWN northcentral Ohio area a project is being developed which may some day take place in prominence with the highly-regarded Boys Town, founded in a similarly small way near Omaha, Neb., around thirty years ago by the late Father Edward Flanagan.

It is Rev. Clarence E. Kerr who is the central figure in the development of Boys Village, at Smithville, in Wayne county, northeast of Wooster, and while facilities now reach only to caring for fifteen boys, two of whom are from Richland county, plans contemplate construction of additional cottages, a machine shop and other buildings which will be needed to care for 200 homeless boys who might otherwise head in the direction of delinquency through lack of guidance.

Boys Village is intended for the care of physically and mentally normal boys between the ages of 12 and 18, received from juvenile courts and child welfare agencies, regardless of race or creed. Boys themselves may apply, or may be recommended for admission by organizations or individuals.

Money will be needed, of course, to maintain and enlarge such an institution, which is supported entirely by public contributions, which are invited in large or small amounts from all interested persons, and an invitation to visit Boys Village is cordially extended by Rev. Kerr and his associates in this commendable enterprise.

H. V. Wade notes that since science has found metals become fatigued it is very brave of them to bear up under teen-age phone conversations.

It's a good habit to shop and buy in Mansfield stores.

Tribute By a 'Diary' Reader

Editor News-Journal.

As one who has known the late Calvin A. Byers, author of "A Farmer's Diary", for several years and who had a literary association with him for some time, I feel impelled to pay him this public tribute.

If ever there was a man-of-God who saw His countenance in all His creation and heard His voice above, beneath, through all that man was Calvin A. Byers, philosopher, poet, teacher, farmer and family nobleman.

In my humble judgment Calvin A. Byers possessed, to a greater extent than any writer in this era of literature, the inspiring gift of interpreting in beautiful English the spiritual values of a material world.

It is unfortunate that his inspired thoughts should have been allowed circulation to so small a part of this groggy, staggering world But while commercial obstacles may have hampered the wider distribution of his writings, even so, his influence has been immeasurable and will be reflected through succeeding generations of those who have been privileged to follow his well-ordered thinking and writing.

Many have gained more widespread recognition on far less intrinsic literary merit, but that is beside the point. His name may be forgotten but his writings stand as a permanent challenge to any who would attempt through words to impart the subtlety of spiritual meaning.

Raymond Moley's Analysis

People Misled By Truman's Promises

SPOKANE — After an automobile trip from New York to Spokane, the writer of this piece seems to be left in no doubt about the reality of the so-called recession.

Only at Cut Bank, Montana, where oil developments have kept things moving is there an exception to the general easing off of business. The wheat crop is far below the level of the past two years. This is largely a weather problem.

Tourists are said to be present in larger numbers than those of last year, but this may be owing to more inforced leisure due to unemployment or slack business.

People seem to be surprised that President Truman and his economic advisers have been so slow to note the decline. The press, however, has been giving plenty of attention to the President's explanation of the recession and its causes.

The cause, according to the President and the Council of Economic Advisers, is due to the consumers. Since the consuming public has been so good to the President, it is a bit surprising to find him blaming it for his current difficulties. It is really biting the hands that marked the ballots last November.

In the President's economic report, the fact is noted which many people were talking about a year ago. That is that inflation always has a way of correcting itself. Prices last year were going higher and higher, until finally consumers decided to stop buying and wait. The result was increased savings and a turn down in employment in manufacturing industries.

* * *

Depended On Truman.

ACCORDING to the Council of Economic Advisers, the recession began with a decline in wholesale prices and, following that, with a smaller decline in retail prices. This led to unsettled confidence among business managers, farmers and consumers.

Profits, which had been high and which a year ago were the object of attack by the President and his supporters in the unions, began to fall. They are now, according to the Council, down 22 per cent. Inventories fell heavily.

Meanwhile, the income of consumers remained high. And as the cost of living fell from month to month, more money went into savings. These savings took the form of direct investments in homes, farms and businesses. They also went into securities and bank deposits. Some went in to government bonds.

Finally, this trend reached the peak of a cycle, and incomes and savings began to decline. Thus, we have the normal succession of steps in a decline.

The one vital thing that the Council of Economic Advisers fails to tell us is who told us to wait for lower prices. Truman told us. He promised in his campaign to lower prices.

People apparently believed him to extend of voting for him, and we may assume that their approval embraced his promise of lower prices since his avowals in that line were more often repeated than those in any other field.

The decline came all right, but not because of the measures that the President wanted to take. None of those measures were enacted. The President's words are more important than many laws.

The Council also fails to tell us how much of the loss of confidence which stopped buying of larger inventories of heavy goods was owing to the President's attacks on business and his promises to the unions.

The President, in enacting his anti-inflation program, has achieved his purpose without the help of Congress. He now has an anti-deflation program. Perhaps, if he talks enough, he can defeat deflation without the help of Congress.

Frankly Speaking

Estimates of Murphy

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — There are mixed opinions on the stature of Justice Frank Murphy, who died Monday.

But if any epitaph is needed for him this one would be true: He wrote well and he thought in terms of people.

His opinions had life and feeling. Compared with some Supreme Court opinions that have been handed down, his were clear and easy to read.

It is easy for a man, elevated to the great eminence of the Supreme Court, to grow far away from people and think of abstract principles.

Murphy kept his eyes on human beings. He had great concern for the rights of individuals.

This, perhaps, sums up his philosophy as well as anything:

"The immutable rights of the individual, including those secured by the due process clause of the Fifth amendment, belong not alone to the members of those nations that excel on the battlefield or that subscribe to the democratic ideology.

"They belong to every person in the world, victor and vanquished, whatever may be his race, color or beliefs. They rise above any status of belligerency or outlawry.

"They survive any popular passion or frenzy of the moment. No court or legislature or executive, not even the mightiest army in the would, can ever destroy them.

"Such is the universal and indestructible nature of the rights which the Fifth amendment recognizes and protects when life or liberty is threatened by virtue of the authority of the United States."

* * *

Few Will Remember.

HE WROTE that in a caustic dissent when a majority of the Supreme Court upheld a U. S. army commission's death sentence for the captured Japanese general, Tomoyuki Yamashita, in 1946.

The Washington Post, which discusses Murphy's place in Supreme Court history, acknowledges his concern for the rights of individuals but thinks he falls a good deal short of greatness. It says:

"In spite of his devotion to the cause of civil rights and his humanitarian spirit, Murphy can not be regarded as one of the great men of the American judiciary.

"His special talent was not that of the judge but that of the crusader, and his record might well have been more notable if he had not attempted to reconcile his humanitarianism with a judical robe."

It's probably too soon to call the shot on Murphy. He was certainly sensitive to the times he lived in when the maintenance of civil rights every day becomes more of an issue.

He'll be quoted from time to time for years by lawyers, which is about the best legal immortality a justice can hope for although the passing years are unlikely to turn him into a giant like Justice Holmes.

References to him among laymen will grow infrequent in a few months. Most of them within a couple of years probably will forget the year in which he died.

And in a few years more his name most likely will slip out of the memory of the big majority of living Americans. And if you doubt this, ask yourself: Who are the other eight justices left on the Court now? Can you remember the names of all the Supreme Court justices of the past 15 years?

And yet this forgetfulness about some of this country's most distinguished men, is, in a backhanded kind of way, probably one of the best signs of the country's almost inexhaustible richness in ability.

'No Contract, No Work' Edict Reversed

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Some people, including John L. Lewis, seem to have forgotten his all-too-familiar refrain: "No contract, no work."

For today, John L. and the miners are doing what they vowed could not be done in the past. They have no contract, yet they are working.

There is a secret but excellent reason for this.

John L. is not above making a deal with the mine owners, and he has made one now. It was no accident that he recently declared that the coal industry needed a czar. In fact such a czar has been agreed upon by Lewis and the northern operators.

He is George Moses of the Frick company.

And after his appointment is formally announced, the mine workers will get either a raise or an increase in the welfare fund. This has been agreed upon in advance, and that is the reason John L. is violating his old adage: "No contract, no work."

Note—The justice department is investigating another angle of Lewis's cooperation with the mine owners – the three-day week. For the mine owners to declare a three-day week would be a violation of the anti-trust laws, but since labor unions are immune from the anti-trust laws, it is suspected that Lewis has put the three-day week across for the operators.

Wall Street's Boner.

IT WAS not Ben Fairless who really dictated U. S. Steel policy regarding the strike–but Wall Street.

The J. P. Morgan firm, which finances U. S. Steel, dictated every move from backstage, with Enders Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee, acting as chief dictator.

The J. P. Morgan boys even dictated the telegram which Ben Fairless sent the White House. The wire was written in New York and phoned to Pittsburgh. All Fairless did was sign his name.

It was this remote Wall Street control that caused U. S. Steel to make one of the most stupid blunders in the entire negotiation. The Wall Streeters did not realize that the union wanted no strike, that Phil Murray might have difficulty obtaining a favorable strike vote.

But when U. S. Steel sent its first abrupt telegram to Truman turning down a fact-finding board and demanding action under the Taft-Hartley Act, it swung the steelworkers overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. Later, U. S. Steel had to reverse its position.

* * *

British and A-bomb.

REAL FACT about the British atomic-bomb negotiations is that Britain has never had any A-bombs stored on her territory. Two years ago it was planned to send six bombs to scotland without the trigger mechanism –the most secret part of the bomb and without which it cannot explode.

However, publication of the plans to ship the bombs brought a flood of protests and the shipment was called off.

Meanwhile we have received the lion's share of uranium from the Belgian Congo, with Britain getting only a drivel. Naturally this has rankled.

Furthermore, the British stopped working on the A-bomb when we started joint development during the war. They gave all their know-how to us, and were working with American scientists when the first bomb was exploded.

Since January 1948, however, we have not been exchanging military atomic secrets with the British–only information about peacetime uses of atomic energy. The British now realize–as do our scientists – that peacetime uses of atomic energy are 10 or 15 years off, and its main current importance is military. Consequently they want to develop the atomic bomb, and have notified us that they want their share in Belgian uranium when the Belgian agreement expires shortly.

* * *

British Control Uranium.

URANIUM is still one of the scarcest metals in the world. The Russians have been searching frantically for it, have German slave labor combing southern Germany.

The British, meanwhile, are blessed with a virtual monopoly of uranium, first through Canada, second through their financial and political hold over Belgium. The British claim they've made considerable progress in making the A-bomb, though they still probably lack the secret trigger mechanism.

President Truman, in outlining the British position at the secret Blair House meeting last week, was sympathetic. He felt that National pride was involved, that we must put ourselves in Britain's shoes. Nevertheless, because of England's close juxtaposition to Europe, and easy bombing range from Russia, he –and the others–did not want A-bombs manufactured in England.

The solution may be more exchange of information, plus joint production in Canada.

Note—Some critics inside the Truman cabinet point out that we armed Britain during the war, financed her after the war, and now face Britain's desire to manufacture A-bombs and at the same time conduct one-sided trade with Russia and Argentina. In brief, we finance an ally over whose policies we have no influence.

* * *

Firing Across Atlantic.

DR. KARL COMPTON, chairman of the research and development board, gave a secret briefing to brass hats recently at which he reported the first guided missile, capable of shooting across the Atlantic, will be completed in four or five years. . . .Compton warned that our worst bottleneck is a shortage of physicists–needed to work on the atomic bomb, chemical warfare, and ordnance research.

The U. S. won't be able to train enough physicists until 1958, he said. Compton bluntly told the brass that he is working to increase the nation's fire power so that "hordes of soldiers" won't be necessary.

Just What Ails Harvard?

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK — When I was in college, one of our favorite songs used to be a ditty with the appealing sentiment " 'Don't Send My Boy to Harvard', the Dying Mother Cried."

For the life of me, I can't remember what her objections to Harvard were in those far-off days when Harvard crimson was strictly confined to its pseudo-literary output.

But if the dying mother were to make that piteous plea to me now, I'd have a right good idea what misgivings actuated this last maternal request.

I am fatigued by the sight of Harvard men on the witness stand in federal court in either the continuing trial of the American communists or in the recent trial of Alger Hiss, Harvard '29.

I am minded of Malcolm Cowley, author, Harvard '20 and former communist who was a defense witness in the Hiss case.

I am also minded of the prominent character witness in the same case, Mr. Justice Felix Frankfurter, Harvard '06.

However, I bore these tribulations with my usual urbanity and good nature, and might never have recalled the expiring mater's request but for the appearance of another Harvard product in the witness box at the trial of the eleven American communist leaders earlier this week.

It is this latter character who has got my dander up, as he must have aroused the dander of all the other kissing kin of Daniel Boone. Dan'l was a man who had many crosses to bear in life, and now in death the old wilderness warrior is plagued by a direct descendent, one Daniel Boone Schirmer of Boston, who is not only Harvard '37 but a member of the Cumminist party, as well.

I swan, I would like to get some of Dan'l's descendents together and see if any of 'em still know how to use a squirrel rifle.

* * *

It Was Different Then.

A MAN named Karl Marx was only two years old when Daniel Boone finally went to the happy hunting ground in 1820, an old man of 88 who was already a legend in a young nation.

Dan'l was further handicapped by the fact he never had a chance to go to Harvard. Dan'l's parents were poor Quakers who emigrated from England to Bucks county, Pa., many blissful decades before that county became the fresh air headquarters of the Broadway and Hollywood intilligentsia.

Only schoolin's Dan'l got was in the standard Three R's. Always was weak in spellin', one of the few weaknesses in the man in one inherited by at least some of his kith and kin.

Minus any fanciful Harvard learnin' and with the communist manifesto still many years off, Dan'l was kinda on his own most of his life time. He didn't know a mite better than to be content with the young republic and with the democracy it was struggling to develop. Suited him right down to his moccasins.

And if ever a man had a right to be good and mad at his country it was Dan'l. No matter how much new land he discovered, Dan'l was forever being hornswoggled out of it by lawin' men and legal hocus-pocus.

The whole state of Kentucky was literally Dan'l's gift to his nation, yet he wasn't able to keep ary acre of land in this vast wilderness.

More lawin' men and legal shennanigans deprived the old man of most of the rich lands he opened up in Missouri.

He suffered terrible hardships in the wilderness. Indians killed two beloved sons and a brother But Dan'l never realized he was the victim of capitalist imperialism.

With a real good Harvard education and the guidance of Karl Marx, the old man would have known what to do. But deprived of both, Dan'l died loving his country and loyal to the last. Told his kinfolks it had all been worth while.

Once when someone asked Dan'l if he had ever been lost in the wilderness, the old man said "No, I can't say as ever I was lost, but I was bewildered once for three days."

I can't help but feel if Dan'l were to make his way back to earth now, and find out about Harvard, the Communist party and Daniel Boone Schirmer, the old man would be powerful bewildered and for a long spell.

You Pay For Freedom

SHE complains about her in-laws limiting her freedom. Of course, she admits, she did let them shove her around for the first three years of her marriage and she still lets them dictate much of her program. But shouldn't they understand that she wants to be independent? Why won't they?

Why won't they, sister? Because no one respects or grants independence just because we wish it. We have to fight continuously to win and maintain it.

Cecil B. deMille once said, "If you give up some little bit of freedom for some temporary gain, you may find that you have signed a mortgage on all your liberty."

Never was a truer word said.

Your liberty isn't the Other Fellow's business or duty. It's your own personal job. If you want to be free you've got to be fit to be free and only you yourself can make you fit.

I admit it's hard. Being human we like to have the Other Fellow take the responsibility. But the pay-off is bitter.

You can't be free and be bound at the same time. You can't let somebody else decide your life for you and yet grow a backbone.

No marriage vow, no business contract, no friendship bond exempts you from the responsibility of maintaining your liberty.

RUSSIA'S war on religion will do more to defeat her aims and programs than the atomic bomb. You can tie to that.

Just as surely as you are reading these lines, the big turn in the tide of communism will come as a result of things like the declaration in Czechoslovakia that anybody paying attention to rules of the church will be held guilty of treason.

Most human beings find their greatest solace in things of the spirit. In the long run, nobody can sneer at the tolling bell in the hillside chapel, the child on the way to Sunday school, and Mom and Pop trying to get close to their creator at the altar rail.

Just now atomic bombs, great air fleets, and big guns are talked of as the things that may have to decide the issue between the communistic world and the rest of us. But man's inherent belief in a God and his deep respect for freedom of religion will ultimately make them all seem like puttyblowers.

Wants Women To Do Anti-War Work

By JAMES DEVLIN

FRANKFURT, Germany — (AP) — America's "No. 1 Tourist" has taken a look at Europe's wreckage and decided that women ought to do more to prevent wars.

Charlotte Gilbert won her unofficial title by traveling—alone—of such faraway places as Tibet, Khyber Pass, Punta Arenas and Mandalay since the death of her husband some years ago.

But postwar Germany has impressed her most—with its evidence of the destruction war can wreak.

"It happened here the last time, but another time it might happen in the United States," the smartly dressed New Yorker told an interviewer.

She said she hoped the thousands of women tourists visiting Europe this summer "will not spend all their time having fun in Paris, but will see some of the war damage."

"I urge them to look at it, think about it, and then go into politics and government when they get back home," she said.

Mrs. Gilbert, dark-haired and blue-eyed, said it was all too apparent that men had bungled miserably at keeping the peace.

"In spite of all the voting privileges and equal rights given women," she said, "this is still a man-run world. And, judging by the results, it is possible men could use a little more help from the other sex."

The bomb ruins of Frankfurt impressed her as "silly, foolish, stupid and illogical."

In urging women tourists to take some time from the pleasant places to see such results of war, Mrs. Gilbert commented that "there is no more glamour in travel anyhow."

"The world is too troubled, money is hard to get and costs are too high," she said.

She reported that she had found "chicanery and abuse" in the tourist industry as rampant as ever.

"The governments are responsible for what happens to tourists," she said. "They should protect us from the chicanery and abuse of the larcenous-minded."

In case the governments don't act, she is interested in forming a "tourists protective guild" to deal with such matters as hotel clerks who say they have no single rooms but have a suite available at three times the cost.

Nevertheless she intends to continue traveling. She came to Europe from a year and a half in Central America.

Now she is on a two-year "overland photographic safari" that will take her around the world. Her next stop is Italy.

Sales Tax Examiner Due July 25

Will Spend Week At Courthouse

A sales tax examiner will be stationed at the sales tax office in the court house, from July 25 until Aug. 1, to assist vendors in the preparation of their sales tax returns for the first six months of this year.

The examiner will be available for consultation from 8:30 a. m. until 4:30 p. m. except Saturday July 30, when the office closes at noon.

Vendors should take with them necessary records such as a copy of their last report, sales report, sales records and vendor purchase orders.

The sales tax returns must be filed with or mailed to Don H. Ebright, treasurer of state, before or on Aug. 1.

If a deficiency is indicated on the report due to failure to cancel sufficient prepaid tax receipts of offset tax due, remittance should accompany the report in the amount of the deficiency, made payable to Don H. Ebright, treasurer of state.

Dice Reach Monte Carlo

MONTE CARLO, Monaco — (AP) — Little Joe from Kokomo came to Monte Carlo yesterday.

Lillian Moore, platinum blonde American dancer billed here as "one of the most beautiful blondes in New York," tossed out the dice for the first time, and the game of craps officially became part of the world-famed Monte Carlo gambling casino. Miss Moore threw a ten (or Big Joe) and failed to make her point.

Manning the table was Albert Jauffret, for 25 years a croupier at the casino before the directors sent him to America to study the gentle art of crapshooting.

Now his title is "Professor De L'Ecole De Craps" (professor of the craps school.)

Jauffret became a crapshooting professor by studying the game for three months in Toledo, Cincinnati, Las Vegas, Reno, Boise and Sun Valley.

"We have adopted the Idaho system for Monte Carlo," Jauffret said, "because the betting isn't as complicated."

Not In Will, Gets $300,000

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Although not even mentioned in a will drawn 45 years ago, a Cleveland woman is expected to get $300,000 from the document.

According to courthouse records, Mrs. Alice Hinds Connor is the only beneficiary of the estate of her bachelor uncle, Edward P. Price, also of Cleveland.

In his will, drawn in 1904, his mother was named as sole beneficiary, conditional on her surviving him. A sister, Mrs. Nellie B. Hinds, was to receive the estate if his mother did not survive. In the event neither survived him, Mrs. Hinds' heirs were to be the beneficiaries.

Price outlived both of the women. Now, as the daughter of Mrs. Hinds and the only heir, Mrs. Connor is expected to receive the estate.

Dodds Sentenced To Go To Chair

ATHENS — (UP) — Harry Dodds jr., 21, of Carbondale has been sentenced to die in the Ohio penitentiary electric chair Nov. 1 for the slaying of Miss Eleanor Gifford, 52-year-old Athens Episcopal church worker.

Common Pleas Judge Roy D. Williams sentenced Dodds after overruling a defense motion challenging the verdict of the jury which found Dodds guilty of first degree murder on July 8. The judge also rejected a motion for a new trial.

Sees Good Crop

FREMONT — (AP) — Harry Hyde, a field representative for the H. J. Heinz company, said today that all signs point to an excellent tomato crop in this area.

Farm Users of Wetalene Praise Faster Cleaning Action

When finer cleaning methods are discovered, Mr. Farmer, U. S. A., has the testing ground to prove their worth. Just try them out at cleaning dairy barn equipment, dairy barn floors! Give them a whirl at a batch of work-soiled overalls! Tough jobs like these — with remarkable results — are what have "sold" farmers in this area on Wetalene since its introduction here several months ago.

"Cuts farm cleaning time in half" is the claim of Wetalene Laboratories, Inc., for this remarkable new cleaning discovery. Both inside the farm home and out, they say, Wetalene's soapless suds do a better job wherever water is used to clean.

Take cleaning painted walls, floors and woodwork in the home. Only one tablespoon of Wetalene to a gallon of warm water and the solution is ready for use. Just wipe off the dirt! No rinsing, no drying, only one pail to carry. Easy, fast? You bet it is! And just the thing, too, for dishes, laundry, windows, for a quicker, cleaner job.

It's taken the man's chores by storm, too! For Mr. Farmer, with a warm water solution of Wetalene is setting new records in cleaning dairy equipment, milk cans, feed buckets and feeding troughs. Wetalene, you see, sterilizes the water as it dissolves the dirt. Gets a more sanitary job done faster!

Economical, you bet! Beside being low in cost, a solution of Wetalene need never be strengthened. A special "builder" ingredient keeps dirt particles separated from the cleansing agent. And it cleans as long as solution remains.

In this area, farm folks are buying Wetalene at leading food stores for as little as 23c for 1 lb., 59c for 3 lbs., and $1.45 for 8 lbs. —Adv.

Blames His Sweetheart

NEW YORK — (INS) — Raymond Martinez Fernandez, co-defendant in the "lonely hearts" murder trial, yesterday turned on his stout sweetheart who had professed undying love for him and said he had nothing to do with the killing with which they they are charged.

The bald-headed, professional Lothario took the witness stand before Justice Ferdinand Pecora in Bronx Supreme Court.

As he testified, he did not once look at 200-pound Mrs. Martha Jule Beck, 29, who sat staring steadily at him from the defense table.

They are jointly accused of hammering and strangling last Jan. 4 an Albany widow, Mrs. Janet J. Fay, 66, in a Valley Stream, L. I., house.

By his testimony, it was indicated that he will recant a confession previously made in Michigan and will attempt to place the entire blame for the murder on Mrs. Beck's shoulders.

Fernandez spoke in a quiet and serious manner before the crowded courtroom as the trial entered its 26th day.

Rhodes Lashes Out At Lausche

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Lashing out at Gov. Frank J. Lausches administration for the second time within a week, Mayor James A. Rhodes charged yesterday that the governor had scuttled a bill requiring loyalty affidavits from all state employes.

But for the "intervention and insincerity" of Lausche, the bill requiring all state employes to swear they were not members of a subversive organization would have been adopted by the general assembly Rhodes charged.

Sent Home To Die

Ex-Capitol Hill Figure Fools Medicos

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

BILOXI, Miss —(UP)— Five years ago Washington kissed Walter 'Skeet" Hunt goodbye and sent him home to ol' Mississippi to die

They took him to a hospital and the surgeons said so long, too

But none of them reckoned with "Skeet", a tough old cop and a champion fighter of odds. He'd been on the ropes before-financially and otherwise—and nobody was going to count him out now. "Skeet" was right.

Today he and Mrs Hunt operate a thriving sea food establishment here, hard by the Gulf of Mexico And doing well with a specialty—fancy packets of frozen fish

'Skeet", white-thatched and missing a few important teeth still likes to reminisce about Washington and how he got there He was just recovering from one of his setbacks in 1932

when he recalls Sen Pat Harrison asked him how he'd like to take a fling at Washington Hunt said he wouldn't mind

He started out as a capital policeman, became disbursing officer and a liaison man between the White House and the Senate

Finally in 1936 he was made chief of the capitol cops

Skeet promptly found himself in the midst of trouble—which he dearly loves Mostly his job was to keep the crackpots from rushing the floor of Congress It posed problems which he usually met with head work and Irish savvy but in extreme cases, with forceful persuasion

There was the time a lady tried to crash the House to oppose conscription

She wouldn't take 'no' for an answer. When "Skeet" blocked her way, she swung her parasol and brought it down crashing on "Skeet's" head. But he stood his ground and, like the gentleman he is, returned the parasol with a bow to the irate lady.

The late Rep Marion Zioncheck the madcap congressman who liked to wade barefooted in ornamental pools around Washing ton was another headache But he was no match for 'Skeet who once carried the lawmaker kicking in protest to dry land and personally laced on his shoes and took him home

From capitol hill to the fish market here was a long hop for Skeet But after a long interlude in the hospital he made it

Signs Phone Limit Bill

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Gov Frank J Lausche yesterday signed into a law a bill limiting the number of subscribers on a party telephone line to 10

Members of the Ohio Farm Bureau and the bill's author, Rep Robert Reidel, D, Ottawa, witnessed the signing

The proposal, which does not become effetive until Jan 1, 1952, allows potential subscribers in rural areas to appeal to the public utilities system in event telephone companies refuse them service.

The uniform municipal courts bill, creating 11 new courts in Ohio and consolidating previous laws under one heading, still awaits the governor's signature

Lausche said he had received numerous protests against the measure from Hamilton county Primary objections to the bill are that it gives the Cincinnati municipal courts jurisdiction over most of the county and eliminates all but two mayors courts and all justices of the peace

Operation To Aid Boy's Leg

COLUMBUS — ? — Nine year-o'd Jimmy Watkins of Urbana, Route 1, looked forward today to the time when both his legs will be the same length

Jimmy underwent surgery Monday at Children's hospital His left leg was crushed five years ago when he was thrown from a tractor Since then the leg has grown less than normally and is two inches shorter than his right leg

Surgeons yesterday operated on the right leg and then placed it in a cast The surgery was to retard the normal leg's growth

Patron Mails Lighted Butt, Box Flames

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Nothing daunts the Columbus fire department — not even one of those almost inaccessible steel mail boxes

An east side woman called the department and said a mailbox in front of her apartment was on fire

Firemen rushed to the scene and found smoke pouring briskly from the slot They explained the fire with the theory that someone must have dropped a cigarette butt in the box but they were afraid to open it because that might be classified as tampering with the U S mails

So they simply shoved a nozzle through the slot, let 'er rip for a few minutes called the post office and went home

Held To Grand Jury On Weapons Charge

Arthur Luckie 53 of 116 West Sixth street was held for grand jury action under $500 bond yesterday in municipal court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons

Police said they found Luckie armed with a loaded 38 calibre Luger pistol

Thomas E. Smoot and Bride To Reside Here For Summer

Simplicity marked the altar decorations in Lodi Congregational church July 2 when Miss Bette Joanne Young, daughter of Mr and Mrs Elmer J. Young, of Lodi, exchanged marriage vows with Thomas E Smoot, 220 Blymyer avenue

Rev Robert E Behrers, church pastor officiated at the double ring ceremony at three o'clock Cathedral candles in seven-branch candelabra illuminated the natural beauty of white gladioli in white baskets, arranged below the candelabra And a single row of the same flowers decorated the choir balustrade

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Swiss organdy made with fitted bodice, long, tight sleeves and high round neckline, and fashioned with an accordion pleated bertha which gave an off-the-shoulder effect An accordion pleated ruffle joined the bodice to a full hoop skirt which extended into a long train

The bride's flowers were a shower bouquet of white roses and Bristol fairy and she wore a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a Dutch cap of Swiss organdy edged with matching ruffle

Miss Barbara Young, as her sister s maid of honor, wore a floor length, off - the - shoulder model of an orchid shade of organdy, cushioned-dotted in white Down the front of the bodice was a row of white pique buttons, and the bouffant skirt was accented by a long pique-cord sash tied in front

The bridesmaids wore identically styled models of the same material in yellow. They were Miss Betty McGarvey of Lodi, Miss Ruth March of Scottdale, Penn Mrs. Donald Nixon of West Salem, and Miss Mary Smoot of Mansfield, sister of the bridegroom

All the bride's attendants wore crownless hats of horsehair braid in matching colors, styled with off-the-face, scalloped brim, and trimmed in the back with tiny nosegays And all carried lovely fans of satin and lace in contrasting colors to which were attached yellow rosebuds and cascaded ribbon

Mr. Smoot's best man was his cousin, Mr. Wade Alleman of Big Prairie The ushers were Mr Philip Haynes of Newark, who is his fraternity brother at Ohio State University, Mr Ray Fuhrman, Mr Duane Read and Mr Bruce Walker, of West Salem

The reception for more than 200 guests followed at the home of the bride s parents on Baker avenue, where the bridal party received on the lawn

Mrs Young headed the receiving line in a floor-length gown of powder blue crepe with which she wore gold sandals, a corsage of Pink Delight roses with headpiece of identical flowers, and mitts of matching shade

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs Glenn Henning of West Salem, chose a floor length gown of pink lace bodice and full, taffeta skirt, a crownless, pink tulle hat, and pink mitts Her slippers were silver and her corsage was white rosebuds

The bride, a graduate from Lodi high school in the class of 1949, is registered for the fall term in the school of home economics at Ohio State university Mr Smoot, an army veteran of the Pacific area, was graduated from Big Prairie high school in 1942 He, too, is registered for the fall term at the university at which time he will begin his final year in the school of optometry Mr and Mrs Smoot will reside for the summer at 220 Blymyer Ave

Have Glamor On the Job

Just because you work at a 9 to 5 job each day is no reason why you should deny yourself recreation You can get it during the week by using your lunch hour and rest periods to the best advantage

Some offices and factories, realizing the relaxation that exercise affords their employes have installed recreational facilities. These are used at sporadic intervals at off-hours during the day.

You don't have to be an old grump on your job to please the boss He doesn t particularly admire the girl who sits glued to her desk all day, developing round shoulders and a sour disposition Usually she does her work in a plodding fashion that is no inspiration to the rest of the staff.

Get up from your desk occasionally and stretch you legs Walk to the water cooler and take advantage of the beautifying effects of water which will held keep your skin drom drying, keep it fresh and lovely, muscles firm and strong and vital organs in condition to perform their functions

On your lunch hour, devote part of your time to a good brisk walk. Or if your office does have ping - pong tables or other sports equipment, participate in their use.

Most large firms encourage after - work recreation also. Employes form bowling or swimming teams which also make for good employe relationships

If you have an opportunity to join in sports activities with your fellow-employes, by all means take advantage of it You can become a dull wit by following that old bus or subway route every night Make tracks at least once a week for an evening of exercise

Girls who work in strange towns where they find it difficult to make friends would be wise to visit the local "Y" or community recreation center where they can let off some steam It is easy to meet people, too, when you are participating in sports Try it and see

Women's Club Enters Contest

LOUDONVILLE — The Loudonville Women s Club have entered a contest, sponsored by the Federation of Women's clubs "Build A Better Community' is the title of the contest and Loudonville is entering on the strength of the new water works system building started here now

Mrs Walter Long has been named chairman of the committee to direct and assemble newspaper stories and announcements, pictures, regarding the water system condition as it existed last winter and also the events of the building of the new system Contributions made by the public will be appreciated

LITTLE FURS—Small capelets and accessories of fur have new importance this season Here Movie Star Jane Greer wears a brief cape of gray American broadtail

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE
For Friday, July 22

A PARTICULARLY astute and shrewd move, or an intriguing development, may have power to turn the tide of dudious or critical affairs into channels making for surprising denouement Strong urges in the direction of creative expression, imagination, ideals, even glamor or illusion, may prove effective where more matter-of fact or obvious techniques or routines might not connect

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are admonished that it may prove more lucrative and advance solid interests to keep the feet well placed on terra firma even tho the head and heart be poisd in lofty flight Practical and workabl tactics could unfold surprising and intriguing results even though subtle crafty phases c uppermost and most alluring

A child born on this day may be inherentiv a dreamer of dreams but this inner drive may best stand the test of reality by tranining and discipline on firmly - established foundations

Your Eyes Tell Your Moods

If you re mad at your boss, or pleased with your beau, if you've been staying out too late or eating too little, it will surely tell in your eyes, says the June issue of CHARM, the Magazine for the Business Girl.

A decisive factor in your good looks, your eyes depend largely upon a program of good health The food you eat is important (especially the foods that are rich in vitamin A), the sleep you get (eight hours per night is the minimum), even the water you drinks (at least six glasses) all add to the beauty of your expression

Prepared eye lotions (which you use with cup or dropper) are wonderful waker uppers, and they'll also relieve a tired taut feeling during the day Little cotton pads saturated with the lotion and worn restfully for ten minutes or so add a sparkle

Be sure to have correct light for reading or for other close work Arm yourself with dark glasses if you plan to be exposed to wind or sun for any length of time

Here's a New Tasty Dessert

Bits of prunes and maraschino cherries distributed throughout these "Confetti Cup Cakes" make them moist and extra tast. Frost if you like or serve them plain with fresh hot tea or coffee

Confetti Cup Cakes

1 cup prunes
½ cup maraschino cherries
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
2 cups plus 2 tablespoons sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
2-3 cup milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind

Rinse prunes in hot water, drain and cut from pits, chop fine Cut cherries fine Cream butter and sugar and add well-beaten eggs Mix thoroughly Sift flour with salt and baking powder, add alternately with milk to creamed mixture Add lemon juice and rind, prunes and cherries and beat well Spoon into greased muffin pans Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F) about 20 minutes Frost if desired.

Makes 18 medium-sized cakes.

Here's another new item to add to the foods you keep on your get-a-meal - in - a - hurry shelf It is canned rice The rice is the long grain variety and has been cooked in water Just heat it and it's ready to serve

Any summer salad looks twice as inviting with a couple of shiny ripe olives garnishing each serving Their mellow flavor provides just the right accent to a molded salmon and celery loaf Serve a horse-radish sour cream dressing with the salad.

Pitched Battle Marks Union Meeting

Legislator Narrowly Escapes Injury

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — (UP)— Rep. Leonard Irving, D., Mo., narrowly escaped being knifed at a hod carriers union meeting that turned into a free-for-all brawl over his policies, police said yesterday.

The dapper freshman congressman from President Truman's home district was in the way of a knife wielding union member when Ralph Dabney, another member, seized the man's wrist and stopped the blow.

Irving had just started to give a financial report to about 500 members of the Hod Carriers Building and Common Laborers local. He is its president and business agent

A suit filed by union members against him last Saturday had demanded that he account for union funds

Two men started heckling him Others tried to silence them and a small riot started .Police said two men in the hall had to be treated for knife wounds A dozen squad cars were called to stop the fight

Irving tried to help stop it He stepped among the fist-and-chair-swinging men. Dabney said a union member slashed at the congressman with a knife.

"You had a mighty close-call," Dabney told Irving after grabbing the knifer's wrist and twisting the weapon away from him. The man got away by ducking into the fighting throng.

Police and other union officers helped Irving halt the brawl. It turned the union hall into a shambles of broken windows and splintured furniture.

Three Pay Traffic Fines

Three persons were fined a total of $10 and costs when they appeared in municipal traffic court yesterday for various traffic violations

Fined $10 and costs each when they pleaded guilty to a charge of speeding were Arthur L Flanney, of Galion and Clarence E Lape, of Bellville

More Troops Reach Docks

LONDON — (INS) — Two thousand more troops moved in to London's struck docks yesterday, and a puzzling dispute between the London dock board and the labor government further complicated the crippling walkout

A total of 9,000 British servicemen are now engaged in unloading goods from vessels idled by the walkout of 15,000 longshoremen.

The dock board, composed of union representatives and employers, warned the strikers to return to work Thursday morning or face loss of hard-won security guarantees.

But the labor government promptly said that no termination of the dock labor scheme is contemplated

Ask Suspension of Atom Control Talks

LAKE SUCCESS N Y. — (INS) — The United States proposed in the United Nations yesterday suspension of atom control discussions by the U N. Atomic commission until the major powers have found a basis for agreement

U S Representative Frederick Osborn, in formally presenting a resolution to that affect to the 11 - nation commission blamed Russia for the hopeless deadlock.

Depart For West

MILLERSB U R G — Mr. and Mrs. Bert Glauque and son, Florien left Wednesday for a four to six week's trip through the West.

En route they will visit friends and relatives in Iowa, Colorado, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and return by the way of Yellowstone National park.

Bucyrus Gets Budget of $152,755

Council Approves Over-Expense Funds

BUCYRUS — Tentative budget for 1950, calling for expenditures of $152,755, approximately $26,000 less than will be spent this year, was approved by city council at its meeting Tuesday night.

Mayor R. L. Hertzer said that estimated 1950 receipts would total $153,000 compared with 1949 receipts of $182,000. The mayor pointed out there are no items sharply reduced in the tentative budget but that small amounts had been cut off various departmental appropriations.

Council also passed legislation for the installation of 5 092 feet of new water mains The project will be started as soon as contracts are awarded, Service Director W. F. Pfleiderer reported Lines to be installed include North Sandusky avenue 1220 feet; Dudley street 1276 feet; Bland avenue 340 feet; Gaius street 360 feet; Russell Avenue 980 feet; Woodlawn avenue 690 feet, East street 1106 feet, Whetstone 20 feet and Irving street 100 feet

Safety Director John Carroll informed council Mrs. Elizabeth Griffitts, City hospital technician, is expected to resign soon to accept federal appointment with the Veterans' administration. An effort will be made to find a replacement before Mrs. Griffitts leaves, Director Carroll stated.

Council referred a petition, requesting some traffic control device at Highland avenue and East Mansfield street, to the traffic commission The petition contained 44 signatures A delegation of east side residents also appeared before council and urged erection of a traffic light at the intersection

2 Area Road Bids Opened

Two Mansfield area highway projects were included in 68 ones for which bids were opened Tuesday in Columbus. There were 300 bidders and the estimated projects' cost is $4,889,768 Highway Director T J. Kauer reported

In Ashland county the resurfacing of 5 36 miles of State Route 3 in Hanover township received a low $34,987 bid from the Mansfield Asphalt Paving company against an estimate of $39,000 Resurfacting of 5 78 miles of U S Route 250 in Montgomery, Orange and Clear Creek townships also found the Mansfield firm bid of $38 055 low against an estimate of $40,420

Crawford county's project of widening and resurfacing with asphaltic concrete 2 01 miles of U. S Route 30N in the city of Bucyrus and Bucyrus township found low bid of $54,824 submitted by the Ohio Road Improvement company of Columbus while the estimate was $55,980

New School Ready In Fall At Plymouth

Grade Building's Construction Speeded

PLYMOUTH — The new grade school building, now under construction, will be ready for occupancy when school resumes in September The prediction was made today by officials of the Richards Construction company who are doing the work

The six room building on Main street, across from the Lutheran church will cost approximately $140,000.

It is being built of hard faced buff colored brick. Besides the class rooms, it has a principal's office, corridors running east and west through the building and three entrances — north, south and west.

There is a covered porch on the west side as a convenience for pupils from the district

In the basement are rooms for the furnace, fuel room and janitor's storage. The building also is equipped with a vacuum cleaning system and all modern conveniences.

The building is ready for the roof, which will be started this week Plastering and decorating will follow immediately after the roof is placed Large windows will be placed in the two rooms facing Main street.

Richland Church Picnic Plans Set

SHELBY — More than 200 persons are expected to attend the first all-Richland county church picnic to be held at 3 p. m Saturday in the South pavilion of Seltzer park here

Sponsored by the County Christian Endeavor Union adults and young persons from every Shelby church and other county churches are invited

Games and other recreation are being planned from 3 00 p m to 6 30 p m preceeding the picnic supper. Those attending are asked to bring a basket lunch and table service Ice cream and Lemonade will be served by the sponsoring organization.

Barnes Company Picnickers Have Fun In Spite of Shower

Barnes Manufacturing company picnickers were determined to have a good time yesterday—despite the rain

More than 600 employes, their friends and families attended the annual picnic during the afternoon at North Lake park When a rain halted pony rides and outdoor games, the activities were moved inside the pavilion and the fun continued.

General chairman for the picnic Harold W Scherer, commented that "most people stayed for the full afternoon and the picnic was a complete success."

Twelve persons walked off with the grand prizes of the afternoon, awarding of which climaxed the picnic activities. Winners were Mrs. Frank Roof and Lloyd Crose, first prize; Geraldine Gremling and Gene Maynard, second prize; Mrs. Glenn Gilroy and Buddy Essick, third prize; Mrs. Mike Loris and Nick Taddeo, fourth; Mrs Dude Petty and George S Cashell, fifth; Mrs Norman Davis and Lester Johns, sixth prize.

1. BE SURE OF HEAT NEXT WINTER
2. SAVE MONEY AT LOW SUMMER PRICES

Last winter fooled us all. It was the warmest in many years. But it's dangerous to count on mild temperatures during the winter that's coming up!

Because of last winter's freak weather you probably have some coal left in your bin. Don't let that fool you into taking chances about the cold months ahead. Be wise, order your winter's supply now and be sure of dependable coal heat when you want it next winter! Coal in your bin is like money in the bank—you know you are safe!

We suggest that you call your local coal dealer right away and ask him to fill up your coal bin. That's the one way to be sure that you and your family will be warm next winter!

Galion Seeks Widening, Straightening of Whetstone Creek

City Council Passes Six Ordinances

2nd Creek Petition Requested of Mayor

GALION — Mayor H H. Hartmann was requested to petition the Crawford county commissioners for the second time to clean, widen and straighten the Whetstone creek at the west side of the city. The action was taken Tuesday night when council met.

Six ordinances were passed, one held for further discussion and one already passed ordinance was returned unsigned by the mayor during the session. They 1950 budget will be read publicly at the next council meeting.

The unsigned ordinance concerned working hours and conditions of municipal light plant production and line workers, and was passed by council July 5 Mayor Hartmann referred to the ordinance as a "hasty" measure.

Yesterday afternoon Walter Williams, acting chief engineer at the Municipal Light and Power company plant since 1947, stated he was "through" acting in a supervisory manner. City Auditor Gloyd A Frye stated at the same time that the ordinance which was passed by council on July 5 and put into effect without Mayor Hartmann's signature Tuesday night did not contain a provision to pay for anyone acting as chief engineer or supervisor.

The new ordinance further complicates matters because it states that Ordinance No. 2690 passed April 2, 1948 be repealed, however Ordinance No. 2690 was passed on April 2, 1946. This ordinance governed working conditions of all city employes. Legal opinion is being sought in the matter.

Williams never accepted the position of chief engineer to protect his civil service rating and has received the regular operating engineer's pay of $1.35 per hour.

An ordinance providing for the same regulation for employes of the line department was held for further discussion.

Three ordinances for assessments also were passed as well two for repair and improvement at the Municipal Light and Power plant. One ordinance was repassed correcting an error

New Englander Adds Height To Americans, Money To Bankroll

NEW YORK—There is one sure and simple formula for making a profit in America.

It is to ask a large number of people what they want—and then mass produce it and sell it to them at a price they can afford.

I would be rich myself by following this easy formula except for one thing. Every time I ask people what they would most like to have they all say:

"Money!"

And I'll be darned if I can think up a way to manufacture money cheaper than the government.

But up in Brockton, Mass., there is a plain-spoken 53-year-old Yankee who was cagey enough ten years ago to ask this innocent question:

"Would you like to be taller?"

And one out of eight men said "yes."

So Ben Stone did something for the "little man." He put a height - increasing shoe on the market. Now he helps grown-up people grow up more — about two inches more.

It really wasn't a new idea. They say that Alexander the Great, who whipped the world and died trying to surround a wine jug, padded his sandals. They also say the Napoleon, a small fry with big fry ideas, fixed, his boots so that there was considerable leather between his feet and the necks he sometimes walked on. And — sh-h-h-h! — Hitler hiked up his heels, too.

"But of course we don't like to mention Hitler wore height-increasing shoes," said Stone. "We'd rather mention George Raft, Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby, Al Jolson, Billy Rose, Humphrey Bogart, Rudy Vallee and Dick Powell."

Stone says he has put his "elevators" on these gentlemen, and some 1,000,000 others in the last decade. He did it by perfecting a shoe which looks like normal footgear but has a thick cork heel that makes a midget fell like calling Primo Carnera "Sonny."

Actors like to wear them because overhead stage lights tend to fore shorten the body and give a small man a sack - of - potatoes look.

was pleasantly surprised to find they had more than Hollywood and Broadway appeal. He discovered cowboys, for example, liked to wear them on semi-formal occasions when they couldn't wear their high - heeled boots. They helped a man from Texa really feel like he was from Texas.

"Oddly enough," said Stone, "it isn t the really small man who ordinarily wants to add a couple of inches to his height. A five - foot - two fellow adjusts himself psychologically to his height. He figures he is what he is — and that's all he is.

"Most people who wish to be taller are men of average height — from five - feet - seven to five - ten. Often as not they are going with a girl who is an inch or so taller than they are, and they just want to get even with her. Or they want her to look up to them.

"It is purely a mater of vanity — but to them it is important."

"How tall are you?" I asked.

"Five - feet - ten - and - a half," said Stone, who stands up very straight. And he added carefully:

"In my stocking feet."

But once he began mass producing his built - up shoes Stone

H. M. Brown Was Retired Store Man

Hugh Morris Brown, 81, retired proprietor of Brown's neighborhood store, at West Fourth street and Helen avenue died at his home, 557 West Fourth street, yesterday afternoon, following an extended illness.

Mr. Brown was the father of Howard Scott Brown, nationally known cartoonist whose work appears in a number of large magazines and frequently in the Laf-a-Day panel in the News-Journal.

He was born near Lexington Jan. 15, 1868, and spent most of his life in this area. He had been in business in Bellville, Loudonville, and Mechanicsburg before coming to Mansfield in 1919.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Nora Stelts Brown; his cartoonist son; and a daughter, Mrs. Lucille Shaw, all of Mansfield; two brothers, Charles Brown of Mansfield, and Dr. E. C. Bown of Zanesville; three grandchildren; and a great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the Finefrock funeral home at 2 p. m. Friday. Rev. C. A. Portz, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, will conduct the services. Burial will be in Lexington cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Mayor Skips Whisker Bid

Mayor Roy W. Vaughn said today he didn't think he would have enough time to grow much of a beard for the Fremont Centennial Jubilee Ohio Mayor's Day on Aug. 5.

The mayor today received his invitation to the event, which he said he will attend. In Fremont, any man who doesn't sport whiskers during the week long Centennial Jubilee must purchas a shaving permit for $1.

To keep from being comspicuous Mayor Vaughn said he migh allow a couple days growth.

Nine Women On Jury List

Twenty-four persons were selected yesterday as prospective jurors in the first of six trials facing persons arrested in a juvenile "love-nest" raid at 34½ West Fourth street July 2.

The panel to be selected from the list will hear the case of Guy Long jr., 25, of the West Fourth street address Aug. 2. He, along with six others, is charged with immoral acts and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Only one of the seven, John J. Weber, 22, of 264 Park avenue east, pleaded guilty when pleas were entered in Judge Stuart H. Cramer's probate court Tuesday.

15 MEN, 9 WOMEN

The venire of 15 men and nine women included: Hugh Clark, 148 Stewart avenue; Mary Baker, Shiloh, R. D. 1; Everett Harbaugh, Mansfield, R. D. 4; Durwarth P. Chamberlain, 178 North Mulberry street; Martha E. Bricker, Shelby, R. D. 1; Katherine Stevens, 219 Clairmont avenue; Helen C. Taylor, 545 Sloane avenue; Jacob J. Franzen, 291 Buckley avenue; Jack D. Gatton, Bellville.

Esther C. Hooer, Mansfield, R. D. 5; Wayne E. McBride, Mansfield, R. D. 6; Emmett E. Lowry, 174 Park avenue west; Nelle E. Kern 155 Carpenter road; Frederick P. Walter, 203 Saxton road; William M. Coffindaffer, 116 Purdy street; Andrew Heidinger, 248 Helen avenue; Hubbell S. Marlow, 73 Stewart avenue; Alma J. Schwab, 586 McPherson street; Ada J. Wilmuth, 46 South Main street; Virgil L. Whisler, 117 Reba avenue; Harry M. Small, 64 Wood street; Ralph Wise, 454 Edgewood road; Geraldine M. Logan, Mansfield, R. D. 4; Walter J. Swoveland, Mansfeild, R. D. 5.

The 13-year-old girl who was arrested with the others is being held as a material witness in the county jail. It is to her delinquency the seven have been charged with contributing. Another juvenile was arrested with them but no charges are filed against her nor is she being held as a witness.

Each of the defendants has asked for a separate jury trial. Those charged other than Weber and Long are Marilyn Jackson, 22, of 1016½ Park avenue west; Noble Keith Perry, 19 of 34½ West Fourth street; Josehp Ralph Barto, same address; Charles Lester Perr, 22, same address; and Mrs. Elsie Ramona Graves, 20, Akron.

The complaint signed by Police Captain Clare Kyler charges the defendants were a group which met at the Fourth street apartment for immoral purposes and drunkenness.

Chinese Officials Stationed In U. S. Get $4,000,000 In Gold

When the Queen Elizabeth docked, it was met by Hsueh Lian-Shieh, the shipload-lot importer, official of the Economic Ministry of the China Republic, attache of the Bank of China, stationed here on diplomatic credentials.

Hsueh recently kicked in some $450,000 to the U. S. Treasury, gift tax (the donor pays) on about $1,000,000 with which he had endowed Marion Saunders, a poker-faced platinum blond whom he had on display every night at El Morocco. The jack and jewels were in her safety vault. The source was not disputed.

He had lavished the fortune on her within a few months. The mandarin and Marion no longer dine vis-a-vis. But that doesn't mean he couldn't afford it. Read on.

Hsueh, surrounded by a dozen grim-looking guards, dashed up the gangplank and to a costly suite which had been occupied by a mysterious Chinese couple, who never came on deck, ate in, slept in relays as each took turn watching a chest in their living-room.

Hsueh descended, walking behind his huskies, who were lugging the unwieldy box. They carried it to his limousine, where the travelers joined him. In the case was $4,000,000 in gold coin. There is no duty on dough.

An this chickenfeed won't go to Fort Knox—because it's that stuff we're always being warned not to take—Chinese money.

The British press doesn't touch the topic, by my information is that King George is no better. His ailment is incurable. . .Princess Elizabeth, who will succeed him on the throne, is taking over many duties of state. Since her marriage and motherhood she has become a serious - minded young woman in the tradition of Queen Victoria. . .Her guide and mentor is Lord Louis Mountbatten.

Despite the wide public dissatisfaction with Labor party rule, the general consensus is that the socialists will again win out, though the majority will be drastically reduced and a coalition government must come soon.

In one way, the regulations which don't permit money to be taken out drives a lot of it out—to Bermuda and the Bahamas, where millions of pounds are stashed. . .In the dominions and possessions the austerity program is not so severe. There is no law against transferring money to these outposts. They are, like our Florida and California, inviting places for retirement, and some of the best families are looking toward them as havens of escape from Crippsitis.

Fugitives Recaptured

Two Mansfield reformatory fugitives were returned to the institution yesterday following apprehension.

Acting Superintendent George Allarding identified the returned convicts as, Edward Nalsap, 27, who escaped from the OSR cannery on Nov. 15, 1948, and Charles Henry Cox, 20, who escaped from the Grafton honor camp on July 12.

Both will be given the usual two years' additional sentence for apprehended escape.

Nalsap was returned from Buffalo, N. Y. He was received on Dec. 4, 1947 from Franklin country to serve 10 to 25 years for robbery.

Cox, returned from Canton, was received July 30, 1948 from Stark county to serve one to 25 years for robbery.

HOLD CONSULTATION

Perry F. Ellsworth, senior training officer for trades and industries at the Cleveland Veterans Administration regional office, is consulting training officers at the Mansfield VA office. Ellsworth will leave tonight after spending two days at the local office.

Driver Injured

Shelby Auto Skids, Overturns

Richard Shupp, 29, of Shelby, R. D. 2, suffered a fractured collarbone Wednesday afternoon when his car turned over on State Route 39 near Mansfield after colliding with another auto.

Shupp was treated at Shelby Memorial hospital and released.

A hitch-hiker, Elwood Lewis, 31, also of Shelby was uninjured. Lewis was a passenger in the Shupp car. He is home on leave from the army.

State highway patrolmen said the accident occurred at 2:40 p. m., two and two-tenths miles north of Mansfield when Shupp attempted to pass a car driven by Donald Cramer, 31, of 572 Bowman street. Patrolmen said the Shupp car hit the Cramer auto, skidded 24 feet to the other side of the road and overturned.

Two young women and a girl, all passenger in the Cramer car, escaped injury. They were: Lois Kodger, 13, Miss Helen Stasel, 26, and Miss Lucinda Johnson, 19 all of Bellville.

Appeals On Law, Fact

Notice of appeal from the civil service commission's affirmation of the dismissal of former patrolman Roger C. Zimmerman from the Mansfield police force showed today that Zimmerman, 484 South Diamond street, is basing his appeal on questions of "law and fact."

He was dismissed from the department by Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison for allegedly not reporting information about a hit-skip accident. The patrolman then appealed to the civil service commission which upheld Garrison's action.

McCormick Buys Washington Paper

CHICAGO — (AP) — The Washington Times-Herald, the capital's biggest daily newspaper, has been purchased by the Chicago Tribune, which has the largest circulation of any standard size newspaper in the country.

Col. Robert R. McCormick, editor and publisher of the Tribune, last announced the purchase of the newspaper once owned by his cousin, the late Mrs. Eleanor M. (Cissie) Patterson.

His brief announcement said the present management of the Times-Herald will be continued.

Pope To Broadcast Message To Women

VATICAN CITY — (INS) — Pope Pius XII will broadcast Sunday what the Vatican calls an "important" message to Catholic women of the world.

The pope will address 10,000 Italian Catholic women in an open air audience as a windup to the Congress of the Union of Catholic Women presently going on in Rome. The world-wide broadcast will be made at 5:30 p. m.

Frigid Signs Used During Heat Spell

OMAHA, Neb. — (UP) — A reminder of last winter's blizzards was given Omaha motorists during the heat wave.

As temperatures soared, signs were erected over downtown parking meters which read "No parking until snow is removed."

The city parking meter department hastily explained that the street department must have been a little confused and should have put up plain "no parking" signs.

PLANE SMASHES INTO HOUSE—Dangling power lines and debris of wrecked plane and home in Seattle, Wash., are searched by firemen and volunteers after a non-scheduled C-46 two-engined airplane bound for Chicago came down on a single motor. Six persons were dead, 36 injured. Passengers, crew, and residents of five homes damaged in the crash were hospitalized. Firemen searched the wreckage for additional bodies.

Pay Final Tribute To Calvin A. Byers

BELLVILLE — In the quiet little rose-and-blue auditorium of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and later in Bellville cemetery, some 250 relatives and friends paid final tribute yesterday to Calvin A. Byers.

From the lectern behind the flower-banker coffin, Rev. Matthew G. Madden, pastor of the First Congregational church of Mansfield, spoke earnestly of his friend, the author of "A Farmer's Diary" and for 25 years a Mansfield high school English teacher.

"Two or three things impressed me about Calvin Byers," Rev. Madden said. "The first was his refreshing simplicity. Another was his calm humility —there was nothing of the pompous about him.

"And finally, as I learned in a conversation with him one day in a classroom at the high school, there was his firm belief that the highest value in life is man. He cared nothing for material things," Rev. Madden concluded.

In the graveside service, the Mansfield pastor quoted from William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis" the final passage, which seemed to express well the philosophy of the man who was being laid to rest.

As Rev. Maddeen spoke the little crowd looked out over the green hills of southern Richland county about which Mr. Byers had written so often in his daily column on the News-Journal editorial page.

The pallbearers were all members of the faculty with whom he had worked at Senior high school —Glen G. Rohleder, George Sherman, F. B. Million, C. H. Vanderbilt, L. E. Rahn and Dan Haber.

Services were in charge of the Snyder funeral home, Bellville.

CORRECTION

A divorce has been granted to Della R. Shipley from Herbert R. Shipley on grounds of cruelty, court records showed today. It had previously been reported that the divorce was granted to Herbert Shipley, who filed the original petition. The award was made, however, to Mrs. Shipley on her cross-petition.

Gets $3,600 From Estate

A three-judge court yesterday awarded $3,600 to Arthur E. Radke, Napoleon, as administrator of the estate of his deceased wife, Mrs. Ada Mildred Radke, who was killed in an auto crash Aug. 11.

Radke had sued Ola Wilrick, executrix of the estate of Earl Delows Wirick, 116 Blanche street, for $25,000.

Wirick, who was driving the other car, died three days later of injuries received in the crash.

The judges were G. E. Kalbfleisch, Mansfield; Clarence U. Ahl, Bucyrus; and Charles Hayden, Mount Vernon.

Hot Stovers Go To Game

The Hot Stove League bus left for Cleveland this morning carrying 42 boys who will witness the Cleveland Indians — New York Yankee game this afternoon.

Members of the AAA Club, Huff Manufacturing and Ingram and Martin teams of the Hot Stove league will see today's game as the guests of Bill Veeck and the Cleveland baseball club.

This is the seventh busload of boys to make the trip to Cleveland to see a ball game this year. Thus far 252 boys have seen games in Cleveland this year.

OFFERS REMEDY—

Boiled blackberry roots—an old Indian remedy—would help clear up the diarrheal disease epidemic in Country Club Allotment No. 3, according to a letter from a Massillon woman received today by Mayor Roy W. Vaughn. Emma White wrote to the mayor that she had read about Mansfield's trouble in the newspaper and said: "Indians boiled up blackberry roots and made tea of it to relieve this sickness." She added "that remedy cured me." However, she continued "I can't advise as to how much for a dose as no two boilings would be the same in strength.

WORKSHOP NEEDED—

The Community Players of Mansfield, literally set out in the cold from their former schoolhouse workshop, have to find a large room or barn to build their scenery this winter. The Players would like to line up space as soon as possible so plans could be made accordingly. Needed is a room with at least 14 foot ceiling preferably 30 by 30 feet or larger. Anyone knowing of or having such space available for rental is asked to call E. D. Gibson at Gibson Motors, Mansfield.

COTTAGE FOR BOYS—

There'll be a brand new cottage soon at Boys' Village in in Smithville — gift of the entire state membership of the United Order of Commercial Travelers. J. A. Kinley, executive committee member of Mansfield Council 13, said today the local council is participating in the project with cash donations as a part of the state-wide youth movement program of the lodge. The village, operated by its founder and director, Rev. Clarence E. Kerr, is maintained as a rehabilitation center for homeless or neglected boys.

UNWAYWARD GOAT—

A wayward goat was chewing up vegetables in his garden on Lawnsdale avenue, a McPherson street resident told police yesterday. Police investigated and "found the goat in question on its own property." However, officers informed the goat's owner it is not permissible to allow a goat to roam around on other people's property.

Appeals Verdict

Notice of appeal of a probate court verdict involving the estate of Herbert L. Dibble, late president of the Carton Service, Inc., of Shelby, was filed yesterday.

The notice says that the plaintiff, Inez F. Dibble, of Jackson, Mich., is taking the case to the court of appeals on questions of law. She is also appealing from overruling of her motion for a new trial.

Probate Judge Stuart H. Cramer found that Jewell G. Dibble, of 205 Park avenue west, was the surviving spouse of the deceased man. Inez F. Dibble, in bringing the action, claimed that she was the legal wife of the deceased.

The verdict granted Jewell Dibble $25,080 of the $32,580 estate, with the balance going to three daughters of the plaintiff, Inez Dibble and Mr. Dibble.

Girl Scout Camp Berths Available

Mansfield Girl Scouts who are interested in attending an established Girl Scout camp may do so this summer, according to Miss Margaret Rooney, executive director of Girl Scouts.

Miss Rooney said there are a few vacancies open at the Girl Scout camp in Columbus for the two-week period beginning Aug. 7 and continuing through Aug. 20. The camp is open to girls between the ages of 8½ and 17 years.

Brutal Niebel Murders Stunned City One Year Ago Today

Death Ended Crime Trail Of Killers

Reign of Terror Lasted 2 Days

Some of the blackest hours of Mansfield's history stunned city residents a year ago today when the bullet-riddled bodies of John E Niebel, Mansfield reformatory farm superintendent, his wife, and 20-year-old daughter, Phyllis, were found in a corn field off U. S Route 42

Today, many Mansfielders will remember the day as the start of a 48-hour "terror reign' which ended on July 23 when ex-OSR convicts, John C. West and Robert Murl Daniels were captured in a road block at Van Wert.

By the time the two killers were apprehended, two more lives had been added to the victim list Columbus, home town of Daniels, also sought the pair for the slaying of a local tavern owner

Justice was swift and sure in atonement for the brutal triple murder. West died shortly after apprehension from wounds received in a gun battle with law authorities Daniels, conceded to Richland county for trial, paid with his life in the Ohio penitentiary electric chair on Jan. 3 of this year

SUSPICION AROUSED

First suspicion of trouble at the Niebel home on North Main street road, came early in the morning when OSR officials notified the sheriff's office of the family's disappearance Shortly after noon, Sheriff Frank Robinson pronounced the family's absence as "kidnaping" after hearing the story of a neighbor who said he saw a car pull into the driveway at the Niebel home shortly after midnight

About 2 p m the same day, a youth attending the Lutheran camp near Mifflin found the nude bodies of the family in a corn field and notified the sheriff and police Immediately began one of the biggest man hunts in the history of the state

The next evening, while law authorities threw up every imaginable roadblock on roads in the area and residents kept their doors securely locked, two men were murdered by the pair in the northern section of the state.

James J. Smith, a farmer of near Tiffin, was shot and killed because he refused to turn over his car keys to West His wife succeeded in escaping and notified authorities Shortly afterwards, Orville Taylor of Niles Mich , was murdered in the same area after surrendering his transport truck to the pair

The truck provided a clue for law authorities and West and Daniels were captured in the vehicle shortly after noon the next day

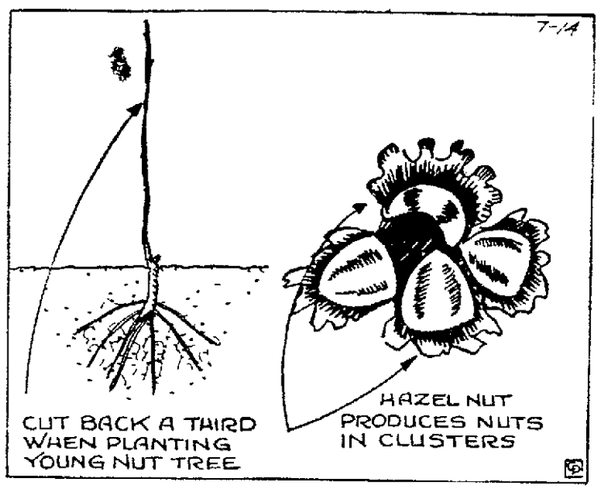
Hazelnut Makes Nice Shrub



By DEAN HALLIDAY
Central Press Association

Hybrid hazelnut makes a fine addition to the home grounds since it can be grown as a shrub The hybrids, which are crosses of the European filbert and the American hazelnut, bear large fruits and the trees are hardy

A properly selected hazelnut kept pruned within bounds, makes a fine, well branched shrub 5 to 6 feet tall In the fall the foliage is beautiful with scarlet and bronze leaves The bush at that time will be completely covered with nuts, which grow in clusters, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph

So much has been done in recent years in the development of superior nut trees that it will pay to investigate varieties carefully before you select, buy and plant them

Since nut trees come from the nursery with long roots for such small trees, the top of a young tree should be cut back at least one-third of the preceding year's growth when set out as illustrated Pruning back the young tree will help to compensate for the loss of the many small root hairs when the tree is dug in the nursery

There are many varieties of new nut trees to select from, but among the black walnuts, the new Thomas black walnut should be considered It is the result of an improved new strain which bears much earlier and has large nuts with a soft shell which is almost as easily cracked as an English walnut It starts producing the second year after it is planted

There is now available a hardy pecan tree which will grow any place where the soil is normally good It makes a beautiful ornamental tree, growing to a great height in the course of time and producing bountiful crops of nuts if conditions are right

Chamber of Commerce Denies Charges of Teen-Age Orgies

LAVALLETTE N J — (INS) — Lavallette Mayor William Chandler s charge that loose-living teen agers have made a "sin city" out of his small beach community was challenged yesterday by the chamber of commerce

Among charges made by the mayor and the chief of the six-man police force, Joseph Borelli, were

That 70 boys and girls were rounded up and sent home to their parents after being caught in "flagrantly compromising" situations

That at one rented cottage shared by members of a fraternity and a sorority nude girls were found 'parading brazenly" to the showers in full view of the boys

That teen - agers staged all night beach 'orgies

But according to Leslie W Topp president of the chamber of commerce the mayor overstated the case Said Toop

"All grossly exaggerated I've had no complaints nor have I seen anything wrong "

Nevertheless Mayor Chandler and Chief Borelli said they are determined to correct the situation The mayor is demanding a city ordinance making it obligatory for every cottage being used by teen agers to have at least one parent on hand to act as chaperone at all times

New Traffic Code Printed

Mansfield's new traffic recodification ordinance is in the process of being printed and should be available to the public later this week, Traffic Commission Frend Boals said yesterday.

The 10,000 booklets will contain about 120 pages and will be 4 x 7 inches in size. They are being printed by the Pioneer Printing company.

I. W. Blackwell, advertising promoter from Youngstown, was authorized by Commissioner Boals to sell advertising which will finance the publication of the booklet.

Boals estimated $2,000 in advertising has been sold, and the cost of the printing job will be from $1,200 to $1,400.

The ordinace was approved by city council at its May 19 meeting and went into effect 30 days later. However, under the Ohio law, the ordinance cannot be enforced until it is published.

City Solicitor C. J. Kalbfleisch said publication in a booklet form by private sale of advertising is legal provided a newspaper announcement also is published.

Coal Firms Using Comics

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Don't tell John L. Lewis, but the soft coal industry has made a small investment in comic books.

The industry's bituminous coal institute has obtained 20,000 copies of the October issue of "True Comics," containing a six-page comic strip in color on the story of bituminous coal mining.

The story, entitled "Black Magic," was checked by coal institute technicians before publication. The institute estimates that more than 3,500,000 persons, "including many adults," will read the "Black Magic" strip.

The institute got its own 20,000 copies for distribution to members of the National Coal Association so that the books can be passed on as give-aways to retailers and other customers.

Amateurs To Stage Show In Roseland

Amateur performers in the Roseland area will entertain tonight at 9 p. m. when 10 acts are presented on a stage constructed at Frank's Naborhood store. The program will be held outdoors, and will be free to the public.

Jimmie King will act as master of ceremonies, and there will be special musical selections by Marge Ferguson on the accordion and vibra harp. All those taking part in the entertainment will be Roseland residents.

Heiress Taken Ill

DEDHAM, Mass. — (AP) — Woolworth heiress Barbara Hutton Troubetzkoi is critically ill in Paris, her weight down to 88 pounds, and she needs her 13-year-old son with her, a court was told yesterday.

Her condition was disclosed in probate court when Judge Arthur W. Davis granted her custody of the boy until Sept. 15.

Counsel for the heiress told the court she has had four surgical operations within the past three years; that a substantial portion of her smaller intestines has been removed and that presence of her son was important to her convalescence. They said she now weighs only 88 pounds and is a semi-invalid.

They said that the boy does not wish to leave his mother, although under a previous agreement, his custody was to be shared by his father.

Spaniards Still Wait For Rights

Franco Promise Still Unfulfilled

MADRID — (AP) — Generalissimo Francisco Franco promised Spaniards four years ago to respect basic civil rights, but the promise is still only a promise.

More than 10 years after the civil war, martial law is still in effect. Military courts try people without jury. A Spaniard who cries "long live the republic" is charged with "attacking the security of the state" and is liable to 30 years imprisonment.

Another who strikes for a higher wage also is "attacking the security of the state" and liable to 30 years.

Since the end of World War II, however, such penalties are reserved for militant communists, socialists or anarchists engaged in active, organized opposition. The ordinary Spaniard gets two to five years for his outburst of political exuberance.

Franco promulgated a "Spanish Bill of Rights" July 17, 1945. It provides that Corts (parliament) "shall vote the necessary laws for carrying out the rights recognized in this bill." The Cortes has yet to vote any of these laws.

So 28,000,000 people silently go on living without the benefits of freedom of speech, worship, correspondence and association; without the rights of a habeas corpus act, or to work and own property, and without guarantees against illegal arrest or entry of homes, all promised in the "bill of rights" and all in existence under the preceding republic and monarchy.

Article one of the "bill of rights" pledges the "guiding principle" of the Franco regime to be "respect for the dignity, integrity and liberty of the human person."

Article two says this respect is extended to those who give their "loyalty to the chief of state" (Franco) and obey the laws of his regime.

Article 12 guarantees freedom of speech so long as it is not used to attack the "fundamental principles" of the falangist state.

Freedom of assembly is permitted for "licit (lawful) ends." An act to codify the provisions of this clause has been before Cortes more than three years.

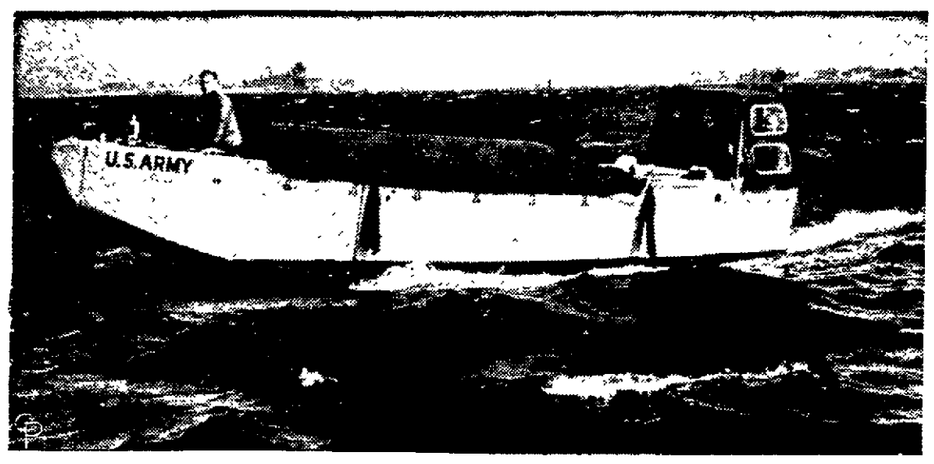
The Cortes act limits meetings to those in conformity with the "spiritual, national and social unity of Spain" and prohibits any opposed to "Catholic morality." Other restrictions practically make formation of political parties impossible.

ACT AGAINST POLIO

WARREN — (AP) — Alleys, parks and other areas are being sprayed with DDT here in a campaign against infantile paralysis.

DON OLD TIME GARB

WARREN — (AP) — Old-fashioned costumes will be donned July 28 when the nearby village of Middlefield celebrates its 150th anniversary.



ARCTIC LAUNCH—Intended for Arctic operations, this one and one-half-ton shallow-draft cargo launch was built at College Point, L. I., for the Army Transportation Corps. Thirty-two feet long, it carries up to 5,000 pounds of cargo or personnel. It is largest boat designed for carrying by plane.

Customers' Corner
All customers expect honest weight from their grocer.
To assure you of honest weight at A&P we buy the finest scales, have them constantly checked for accuracy and put them in plain sight where you can see the dials.
And, of course, all our employees are thoroughly trained and strictly instructed to conform to our policy of 16 ounces to the pound.
If we should ever make a mistake in weighing your purchase, you will be doing us a favor if you call it to our attention.
We would appreciate any suggestions you may have to help us maintain our strict standards of honesty and accuracy, or anything else we can do to make your A&P a better place to shop.

New York Giants Set Scoring Record

Kiner, Sauer Star With Homer Blasts

(Compiled from Wire Dispatches)

Cleveland's hot-but-suddenly-cooled attempt to catch the New York Yankees may be causing all the furore in the American league but over in the Senior circuit some fine slugging feats are going on unnoticed.

The New York Giants, for instance, established a new major league consecutive scoring record yesterday while whipping Cincinnati, 5-1. By scoring in each of the first three frames, the Giants extended their streak to 14 innings. The old record was 12, set by the same Giants in 1923.

Ralph Kiner and Hank Sauer came in for a bit of honors with the willow, too.

Kiner belted home runs number 25 and 26 as he led the Pittsburgh Pirates to an 8-6 conquest of the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers. Kiner's second clout came with two mates aboard and his team trailing in the ninth inning.

Sauer batted in all the Chicago Cubs' runs with two homers and a triple in an 11-inning 4-3 victory over the Phillies. His triple with Andy Pafko on first in the 11th gave ancient Dutch Leonard his fourth win against 11 losses.

The Dodgers' National league lead was trimmed to two and a half games when St. Louis scored twice in the tenth to whip Boston, 6-4. Lou Klein's double drove in the winning runs.

BOSTON FALLS BACK

In the American league, the Boston Red Sox fell to 8½ games behind the leaders by bowing 8-7 to the seventh-place White Sox of Chicago. The Bosox blew a six-run lead they had in the second inning and then failed to take advantage of a tie in the ninth. Ted Williams' 22nd homer with two on had tied the count in the top of the ninth but George Metkovich's triple and Eddie Malone's fly won for the Chicagoans in the last half.

The third-place Philadelphia Athletics were rained out at St. Louis while Detroit shaded Washington, 6-5. The Tigers pushed over three runs in the eighth inning with Johnny Lipon's squeeze bunt single scoring Hoot Evers with the winning run. Hoot Evers led the attack with three singles off loser Mickey Harris.

The New York Yankees routed Cleveland and Bob Feller, 7-3, to take a 4½ game lead.

Doby Is Fined For Bold Try To Steal Home

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The Cleveland Indians put their star centerfielder, Larry Doby, in the doghouse today after his bold attempt to steal home against New York backfired.

Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau huddled with the negro player for 10 minutes after the futile play last night and then announced he had fined him an undisclosed amount.

"It was not based only on that attempt to steal home tonight," Boudreau explained. "Larry has taken several unnecessary chances lately. This should make him more careful."

Doby couldn't be reached for his side, but Boudreau said "he didn't make any excuses. He just admitted he had made a mistake."

The futile dash took the steam out of Cleveland's eight-inning rally and New York went on to win a 7 to 3 verdict.

Trailing 7 to 2, the tribe had loaded the bases against Ed Lopat with none out. Mickey Vernon started the rally with a single. Doby got the same and Joe Cordon walked.

FORCES RUN IN

Then Joe Page relieved Lopat and promptly walked Boudreau, forcing Vernon home. After dishing out two balls to Bob Kennedy, Page conferred with catcher Yogi Berra and the two then resumed their places.

Page had his back to third base and Berra was conversing with umpire McGowan when Doby got underway.

He was half way to the plate before the two New York players appeared to realize what was happening. But they recovered quickly. Page fired the ball and Doby was out as he slid head first into the plate.

And that ended the rally. Kennedy walked, but Jim Hegan struck out and pinch-hitter Ken Keltner grounded out.

"Guess that was what I needed to settle down," Page remarked afterward. "I couldn't believe it when I first saw him going and almost held onto the ball."

Thick-chested Berra admitted the play surprised him, but added:

"Who'd think a guy would try a stunt like that? It worked out all right for us. I wish they'd try it more often."

Steve O'Neill, the Indians' portly third base coach, wasn't at all happy. Although he had no part in Doby's strategy, the fans thought he did and they let him know about it.

Obviously irritated about the whole thing, he brushed aside reporters and left for home early.

Aussies Play Canadians

MONTREAL — (UP) — Favored Australia met Canada today in the first two matches of the North American zone Davis cup tennis semifinals.

Brendan MacKen, of Montreal-born lad now living in the United States, played for Canada against Billy Sidwell in the first match today, and slim Henri Rochon of Montreal met Aussie singles champion Frank Sedgman in the second.

In tomorrow's doubles, Walter Stohlberg of Vancouver, B. C., and MacKen meet Jack Bromwich and Sedgman.

The last two singles matches in the best-of-five series will be played on Saturday.

Three Tilts Today

Three games will be played today in the Central Ohio junior league. Ashland is to be at Madison, Lexington and Ashland and Mansfield Athletic club at Bellville.

Glisson's Hottest Jockey With 156 Winners In 1949

NEW YORK — (AP) — G. P. Glisson's the name — the hottest little jockey to hit the "big apple" in many a moon.

Today, this blue-eyes, fuzzy cheeked youngster who will be 19 on Oct. 31 is the rage of the metropolitan New York tracks — known to turf people as the "big apple."

Glisson, with 156 winners this year, is the leading rider in the nation. He's 11 ahead of Logan Batcheller, now riding at Chicago.

Gordon lost his five-pound weight allowance for apprentice riders July 2, one year after he had his first winner. But it hasn't made any difference. He keeps bringing 'em home. Glisson was the leading rider for the Empire-at-Jamaica meeting just closed.

"I've done better since I lost the allowance," he said. "I don't feel any different, and the horses seem to run just the same."

Dutton Gets Head Coaching Position

EAST LIVERPOOL — (AP) — Robert Dutton, backfield coach of the high school football team here since 1946, today resigned and announced he had accepted the head coaching position at Weston (W. Va.) high school.

Dutton, who also was the Potters' wrestling coach, was named to that position also at Weston. Two vacancies now exist in the Potters' grid staff.
